Dr. Cowen Spurs K. of C. Chapter War Bond Drive, Chaplains' Aid Campaign

AUBURN—Freedom of man, social legislation, angles of the war and postwar problems were touched upon by the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen at the quarterly meeting of Central New York Chapter, Knights of Columbus, held Sunday afternoon in the Genesee Street home of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus. The session which was one of the largest attended in council halls, was presided over by Chairman Michael J. Leary of Ithaca.

Grand Knight George D. Hinman of Auburn Council welcomed the knights and the invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Gregory Byrne, Catholic Chaplain at Auburn Prison. Lt. Walter H. Cassidy of Rochester gave an address on War Bonds and War Savings Stamps.

The Chapter voted to cooperate in the campaign for funds to aid the Catholic chaplains in the Armed Forces of the United States, all contributions to be turned over by state officers to Bishop James E. Kearney of Rochester, who will present the funds to the Most Rev. John T. O'Hara, C.S.C., Military Delegate of the Armed Forces.

A Steering Committee for the nomination of officers of the Chapter to be held at the July meeting was appointed as follows: Thomas Corcoran of Oswego, Clifford C. Cuerby of Syracuse, Dennis Woods of Cazenovia and George B. Shehan of Auburn. There was also discussion of the state convention of the order which is to be held in Albany on May 22, 23 and 24. The closing prayer was given by the Rev. Gerard L. Ambeau, Chaplain of Auburn Council and assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus Church. Luncheon was served to the men with a dinner for the officers at the Osborne Hotel.

In his talk, Dr. Cowen, quoted the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal and with a right to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness. He stated that "a dictatorship takes away the right of freedom of man and enslaves slavery, and therefore we must win this war to retain this freedom for America is the land of the free. In fighting to win this war, we must be vigilant to the aftermath to that we may retain freedom and that Congress must also be vigilant to this end."

Officers of the Central New York Chapter are: Chairman, Michael J. Leary of Ithaca; vice-chairman, Francis C. Crosby of Auburn; treasurer, John W. Larkin of Syracuse; secretary, E. D. Regan of Ithaca; chaplain, Rev. Gerard L. Ambeau of Auburn; warden, Thomas B. Mahon, Jr., of Seneca Falls; inside guard, Dr. W. J. Bingham of Fulton; outside guard, George K. Townsend of Newark.

Hobby Contest Awards Go To Nazareth Girls

Two of the seven awards in a National Hobby Contest sponsored by the "Queen's Work," St. Louis, Missouri, were won this week by Nazareth Academy Juniors.

Elaine Dolan, Holy Redeemer Parish, won third place for her 1,000-word essay "On Collecting Travel Folders"; while Mildred Fiscer, St. Monica's Parish, won fourth place for her essay "On Keeping a Weather Log."

Mercy Students' Program Marks Pan-American Day

Amid bustle of wartime activities, students of Our Lady of Mercy High paused on Wednesday to celebrate Pan American Day with motion pictures, music and a Spanish fiesta. An assembly program on Friday will climax the week.

To learn more about our Good Neighbors, the students ordered the movie shown of "Orchids of Latin America," "Fiesta of Music" and "City Dancers of Popayan."

Recordings of the Mercy High Glee Club and Orchestra made for a broadcast of good will to all the South American countries, last summer, were heard. Sponsored by the comic, the program included "Waltz of the Flowers" and "La Cumbre."

The Spanish menu was served under the direction of Sister M. Berta.

Feature of the week was the blessing by the Rev. Lawrence H. Casey of the statue of Blessed Martin de Porres. After the blessing the statue was placed in one of the school's halls.

The week was chosen as an appropriate time to present the status of the "Saint of Social Justice" because Blessed Martin de Porres was born in America and combed during American Lent. Leaflets describing his life and containing a special prayer to him were distributed.

SODALTALK

WORLD SODALITY DAY

As in former years, the Rochester Sodalities will join other Sodalities in the nation to celebrate World Sodality Day. This year, rather than ask each Sodality to have an individual celebration, the Rochester Union will participate in services at St. Andrew's Church. Miss Marian Roehly, chairman, and her committee are now completing plans for this annual observance on May 3. Please follow SODALTALK for further announcements.

PATRIOTISM

Patriotism is a very difficult word to define. However, Sodalists of Holy Ghost Church, Coldwater, have certainly put forth the true meaning of the word. When the announcement was made at Union meeting that the Apostolic Committee was collecting funds for the U.S.O., representatives of Holy Ghost quickly relayed the word to their members and obtained a very acceptable gift for the men in service.

DATE FOR SODALISTS

Friday, Apr. 30, marks the feast of the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady. This feast is celebrated on the Friday after Passion Sunday to show us how Mary suffered with Christ during His Passion and Death. Sodalists should show their devotion to Mary in a special manner on this day.

MEMORIES

Do you recall the Day of Recollection at Corpus Christi on Mar. 14? The Rev. Benedict Ehmann gave several suggestions for our spiritual life. Five minutes mental prayer each day is a very powerful aid to all. Spiritual reading is also highly recommended. The following books were given to the leaders: New Testament, Imitation of Christ and the Life of Christ.

Nazareth Juniors To Hold Easter Dance On April 27

One of the most outstanding events of Nazareth Spring Season will take place at the ballroom of the Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday evening, April 27, at 9 p. m. until 12 midnight. The Juniors of Nazareth Academy will present their Easter Dance to the music of Dutch Le Haas and his orchestra.

The officers of the club, Bette Cuddles, Jerry Hefnia, Jeanette Cooper and Joan Lynch, have been busy appointing the committees to assist in the sponsoring of this dance.

The following have been appointed: Decoration Committee: Jeanne Marie Kelly, chairman, with Ruth Perry, Irene DeBoerdt, Ruth Mehlig, Nancy Vogt, Patricia Curth, Barbara Miles, Alice Normile, Betty Drumm, Beverly Heath, Colleen McDonald, Ruth Downs, Catherine Foos, Edith Gingrece, Patricia Gundell, Joan Hayes, Bernice Ranzer, Marjorie Maxwell, Marian Reynolds, Audrey Scottebo, Laura Mae Syzemore, Rose Tullarida and Marie Anne Quinlan.

Publicity: Mary Maley, chairman, with Dorothy Walter, Mary Ellen Flannigan, Patricia Dennis, Gloria Galvin, Mary Teresa Cahill, Doris Incavco, Pauline Alderman, Marie Sherry, Marie Collins, Rita McKenzahl and Peggy Schoepel. Financial Committee: Dorothy Carducci, chairman, with Dolores Bryant, Maybelle Lama, Beraice McCall, Cecilia Stowe, Pauline Cattalani, Hildegarde Heinrich, Frances Camera, Patricia Murray, Mary Anne Doyle and Mary Volk.

The Nazareth girls are especially interested in this dance because the proceeds from it will be given to their school paper, "The Gabriel."

Aquinas Mission Bout Final Set-Tos Listed April 16

The Annual Aquinas Mission Bout Finals, will be held Friday, April 16, in the school gym. The first fight on the card of ten is scheduled for 8:15 P. M. Nine of the bouts will be for championship awards and the other is an exhibition.

Eliminations in the last week and a half have brought the more talented contenders to the finals. The Rev. Hugh Raffey, C.S.B., head of the Aquinas Mission Unit and chairman of the Bouts, reported this year's bouts have smashed all previous records, both financially and the quality of talent displayed. Everyone is looking forward to Friday night's card which features the "cream of the crop" in the fighting circle.

The card, beginning at 8:15 P.M., features:

Class	Fighters
165	Don Swol vs. Dave Mahar
115	Jim Smith vs. Bob Muthern
118	T. O'Connor vs. D. O'Connell
127	Don Baker vs. Jack Pocket
132	Jack Howard vs. Earl Gleason
147	Tom O'Hara vs. Don Cortelli
160	Jack Costigan vs. Dick Decker
Light-Heavy	B Cannon vs. Tripi
Heavy	A. Dominco vs. A. Nichitta
Exhibition—139	Tony Passannanto vs. John O'Connell

Museum Marks Shoe Firm's Anniversary

With a museum display of shoes that have been in vogue since 1860 as the feature event, C. Barker and Son, shoe firm, is observing its fiftieth anniversary in the retail shoe business.

Together with the museum footwear, which was heralded with extensive advertising in neighborhood newspapers, was shown an excellent stock of shoes for men, women and children that are up-to-the-minute in style.

Gottlieb Barckh and his son, Charles, are members of the firm, which was founded by the former at St. Paul Street in 1893. Within two weeks from its beginning the building in which it was housed was burned along with the stock of merchandise. But that did not daunt the founder. Shortly afterward he had another new store in the vicinity, but this was outgrown within a few months and another move was necessary. The present store, a modern structure, is the fifth location of the firm.

"Perhaps you will enjoy a chuckle or two at what was once us 'high style' merchandise as the bobtailed shoes we are showing today," was part of the message of the firm to its customers, who came from many sections of the city to see the old display—and to buy new shoes.

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

Baseball's Return Hailed By Students

By ROGER TRAHOLD

For the first time in many years, to the great pleasure of the student body, Aquinas Institute will have a baseball team. The players who are to represent the Maroon and White on the diamond, are being chosen by tryouts on the school campus, for which all students are eligible. In order to help finance the team, a campaign is being conducted on Apr. 16, under the capable direction of Father Duggan, C.S.B.

An opposition, this team will encounter tough clubs of the public high schools, due to the helpful efforts of their officials. This is something that has not yet been accomplished in football, and should therefore cause great enthusiasm among sport fans. It is hoped that this long sought rivalry will continue in later years.

SENIORS ON RETREAT

On next Tuesday and Wednesday, Apr. 20 and 21, the Seniors of Aquinas will have a spiritual retreat, given by the Rev. John Glynn, C.S.B., of St. Anne's Parish, Detroit, Mich. Since it is to take place during Holy Week, this long-desired retreat will present a fine opportunity for these young men to prepare for Easter in the best way possible. It is the first retreat to take place at Aquinas after a lapse of many years.

The care of discipline is love, and love is the keeping of her laws. And the keeping of the laws is the first foundation of incorruption, and incorruption brings us near to God.—Wisdom, VI, 19.
