Wine Promotion

"I know you're praying for me," wrote Reginald Gregory T. Walker to his mother, Mrs. Harold Walker, 215 N. Main St., who only last week received news of his enlistment. The successful also is interested and grateful for the children's Victory Service, organized at St. Patrick's on Monday evening.

Wine Promotion

Classes among them of 1940 were for work in the medical corps of Camp Cook, S.C. Reginald Walker had found his army life much varied. He does office work, radio work, typewriter repairing. (One day I rode in the railroad's car all over the barracks because he heard there was a typewriter for sale, and wanted me to get it for him.) And just now has started setting up typewriters for several hospital patients, since a first experiment proved highly successful.

NIT'S NAZI PLAN TO USE CLERGY IN FORCED LAB.

NEW YORK.—(UPI)—The plan of the Nazi leaders to use 200 Norwegian clergymen and theological students to force labor is disclosed in the Washington newspaper, Defense Weekly, a dispatch received by the Office of War Information here today.

60th Anniversary

VATICAN CITY.—The sixtieth anniversary of his ordination by the priesthood has just been observed by the Most Rev. Albert Oeric Tinnar, O.F.M., Tular Bishop of Orléans, whose entire career has been spent in mission work in China, he said by Omny-ware Kungwe.

SECRETS CONSPIRACY

Ottawa.—The totalitarian state, which refuses to recognize the rights of the human person and which makes of the State the sole law, is a conspiracy which must converge all the activities of the individual, writes the condemnation of all Christian faith and of all civilized thought, the Most Rev. Alexander Vachon, Archbishop of Ottawa, said in a radio address here.

St. Louis

St. Louis.—Felix Rivest, former Missouri Congressman and State Representative, who died recently in McAlester, Tex., of injuries received in an automobile mishap, left the bulk of his $200,000 estate to St. Louis University to establish a religious center.
