K. OF C. OPEN BOND DRIVE

By Dolores E. Haskahan
HORNELL—Members of the Hornell Council, Knights of Columbus, are cooperating with the second war bond drive by opening a campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Stamps. The local chapter's drive is a part of the national campaign ...

Father Devraux cited the attitude of Thomas at the beginning of the crusade as an outstanding example of hope born of faith. This lesson of the crusade teaches the secret of spiritual success in that one may see, in whatever time he is bearing through all suffering that God is omnipotent to aid him at the proper time.

Corning Youths In Service

CORNING—Pvt. Edward J. Kelly, son of Mrs. Anna Kelly of State St., has been promoted to private first class and is now stationed at Brookings, S. D., where he will receive further training in the State College camp. He recently completed basic training at Kearns, Utah.

Honor Priests

A reception to honor the Rev. John P. O'Malley of Auburn, former assistant pastor of St. Ann's Church, and the Rev. John McKinnis, now assistant at St. Ann's will be held Thursday evening, Apr. 18, in the Federation Hall.

Pvt. Daniel C. Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Paul, 10 Pine St., is now stationed at the University of Vermont where he is taking a course of instruction in preparation for appointment as an Aviation Cadet. Upon completion of the course he will be classified in one of the branches of the Air Force and will be sent to a specialized school of the Army Training Command.

A program has been planned and a large attendance is anticipated. Charles Smith is general chairman of the reception, assisted by a large committee.

Lenten Sermon

"Hope" was the subject of the Lenten sermon given by the Rev. William Devraux of Newark, at the regular devotion last Sunday evening at St. Ann's Church.

Corning Weddings

Taylor-Flager
CORNING—The marriage of Miss Jeanne Katharine Flager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Flager, 108 Hamilton Circle, Painted Post, to Kasper Harry Rogers Taylor, son of Mrs. Alice Taylor of Ithaca and the late Harry V. Taylor, took place Saturday, Apr. 13, at West Lafayette, Ind. The Rev. Father Holland, pastor of St. Mary's Church there, performed the ceremony.

Father Devraux, in clarifying the two sins against the virtue of hope, explained that presumption entails God's preception in the supposition that the individual seeks to receive God by being as he chooses, still expecting God's mercy. This distorted sense of hope is the result of a weak faith.

Despair, Father Devraux explained, is not a new falling, since intellectual blackouts have existed for numerous years, and have been brought about by the world's substitution of Humanism for Theology. Despair, Father Devraux declared, is the fruit of free thought.

Corning Deaths

CORNING—Mrs. Bernard J. O'Neill, 62 of 244 Denton Frey, died Friday, Apr. 9, 1941, at her home. Mrs. O'Neill has been in ill health for several years but her condition became serious about a week ago. She was born in Corning, Mar. 18, 1881, the daughter of Michael and Marie Erady O'Shaughnessy. She was married to Bernard O'Neill on Jan. 8, 1902, at St. Patrick's Church where she was a life-long member. She was also a member of the League of the Sacred Heart.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Robert Monrad of West Lafayette and Eugene Robert Goodwin. Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of the Painted Post High School and Greys Business School. Until her marriage she was employed in the personnel department of Corning Glass Works. Kasper Taylor, who is stationed at Purdue University with the Naval Air Corps, was associated with the International Business Machines, Inc., before he entered the service. The couple will reside in West Lafayette.

Mrs. O'Neill is survived by her husband, two sons, Paul J. of Corning and Edward T. of Fort Meade, Md.; a sister, Mrs. Frank Fein of Corning; two brothers, Edward and William O'Shaughnessy of Brecklyn; a grandson, Jerome Paul O'Neill of Corning.

Hershel-Patrick
Mrs. Mary Ann Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patrick, 221 Commerce Street, and Pvt. William A. Herschel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herschel, 27 E. Market Street, were united in marriage Friday, Apr. 2, at Columbus, Ga. The Rev. Father Mullin, pastor of the Holy Family Church, performed the ceremony.

Burial services were held from the late home at 8:30 A.M. Monday and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Herschel, a graduate of St. Patrick's School and Corning Free Academy, is employed in the payroll office at Corning Glass Works. Pvt. Herschel, who entered the service in July, 1941, is now stationed with the Air Corps at Lawson Field, Fort Benning, Ga.

Cancel Home Coming

River Forest, Ill. — Definite cancellation of the annual Homecoming of Rensselaer College Alumnae in deference to national defense and the war effort, was announced today. The Homecoming had been scheduled for November 8 and 9 and annually attracts from 800 to 1,000 graduates from all parts of the country.

36 Notre Dame Men Listed As Killed In Service

NOTRE DAME, Ind.—Thirty-six Notre Dame men are listed on the killed-in-service roster of the university, only ten fewer than World War I total. The figure is estimated to represent a few cent of the Notre Dame men already in service. The Notre Dame student council is preparing a service flag for the campus.
