New Road To Garden Of Gethsemane

(N.C.W.C. Easter Supplement)

A new road to the Garden of Gethsemane, running below the eastern wall of Jerusalem, has been completed.

In raising and straightening the former, steep, winding road, care was taken not to obliterate the traditional site in the Cedron Valley of the Stoning of St. Stephen, the First Martyr.

It is quite within the power of all to seek solitude of heart, serenity and peace of spirit.

Wins Music Award

New York—Thomas Hayes, of the music faculty of the Catholic College, Washington, has won the chamber music contest sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs. It has been announced here. The award, worth $300 and a suite composed for strings and clarinet, carries a $300 prize.

Accidents Increase Despite Holy Land Ban On Automobiles

(N.C.W.C. Easter Supplement)

Despite the prediction that the banning of private automobiles would result in fewer traffic accidents, making the Holy Land a "pedestrian paradise," there has been instead a 20 per cent increase in accidents and traffic fatalities during the five months the restrictions have been in force.

The scarcity of privately owned automobiles has brought about a corresponding shortage of taxis, now that both the lowly and the great must patronize that democratic means of conveyance. Prices climbed down the line five or ten fold. Little more remains—"for all."

'Little Prince' Choice Of Pre Parents Club

NEW YORK—The Pre Parents Book Club has selected "The Little Prince," a spiritual allegory, as its March book.

What a lovely sentiment there is about the three wise men—they were three days late!
