

New Road To Garden Of Gethsemane

(N.Y.C. Easter Supplement)
A new road to the Garden of Gethsemane, running below the eastern wall of Jerusalem, has been completed.
In raising and straightening the former, steep, winding road, care was taken not to obliterate the traditional site in the Garden Valley of the slaying of St. Stephen, the first martyr.

It is quite within the power of all to seek outside of heart, serenity and peace of spirit.

Accidents Increase Despite Holy Land Ban On Automobiles

(N.Y.C. Easter Supplement)
Despite the prediction that the banning of private automobiles would result in fewer traffic accidents, making the Holy Land a "potentially" paradise, there has been instead a 30 per cent increase in accidents and traffic fatalities during the few months the restriction has been in force.

The severity of privately operated automobiles has brought about a corresponding shortage of buses, now that both the levy and the great mass pilgrimages that characterize seasons of conversions. New limited bus the bus line up to the Latin Quarter, however, for all.
