Christians, Jews Lux In Duty Course World Chaos — Msgr. Sheen

NEW YORK (NY) — The chaos of the world today is due "in great measure" to the failure of Christians and Jews to live up to the full responsibilities of their religions, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Sheen, of the Catholic University, declared here Monday night in a radio address on the "Catholic Hour."

The title of Msgr. Sheen's address was "Jews and Christians" and was the substance of a number of revealing discourses on the general topic, "The Crisis in Christianity."

Msgr. Sheen said, "The greatest mistake ever given to any people by God was bestowed upon the Jews and the Christians. Msgr. Sheen said, "The Jews were chosen by God to be the people to bring the Revelation to man, and the Christians to establish the Kingdom of God through the world of Christ."

Msgr. Sheen said, "The Jews were chosen by God to be the people to bring the Revelation to man, and the Christians to establish the Kingdom of God through the world of Christ."
