History Survey's Results Studied At Verein Session

Results of the survey recently made by the New York Times of 7,000 freshmen in some 36 universities and colleges of the country in the matter of knowledge of American history, and comments on the survey made by the heads of various colleges and teachers of American history in the country were discussed by the Catholic Central Verein of America, Rochester Branch, at its regular monthly meeting held last Sunday afternoon.

The occasion of the reference to the Times survey was consideration by the Branch of the resolution adopted at the national convention in St. Louis last August and entitled "Historical Study."

Students Deficient

The survey showed, as was pointed out, an appalling lack of knowledge on the part of present day freshmen of American history, also American geography as it pertains to history. The occasion of the resolution was a survey made a year ago by the New York Times among college students, which resulted in disclosing conditions similar to the present survey.

Reference was also made to the lack of knowledge on the part of freshmen of the importance of acquiring not only a record of names, dates and events, but in particular a record or appreciation of the spirit of the great events, and the great men that figured in these events.

Stress was laid on that part of the resolution which reads, "It is imperative that we view history not merely as a secular subject, but as the revelation of God's Providence in time. In other words, we must promote a Christian philosophy of history."

Stress Philosophy

The importance of emphasizing the philosophy of history was pointed out and it was contended that if the teaching of history is to be really effective, the important part that the past has played must be kept in mind. The saying of Lord Acton that in order to understand the present you must be familiar with at least 200 years of past history was referred to. The framers of the resolution had in mind the importance of a people's past when it closed the resolution with the following:

"Knowledge of a people's past is essential to those shaping the present and planning for the future. It was a distinguished American who said: 'As the past of an organism decides its future, so the future of a people is already written in its past.' And that past should be known to every serious minded citizen of our great republic."

Reports of the meeting of the executive committee of the state held at Syracuse Apr. 4 were made.

Final arrangements were made for the celebration of the Great Labor Encyclicals of Pope Leo XIII and Pope Pius XI, which will take place on May 15 in St. Joseph's Hall. This celebration is particularly important in view of conditions prevailing in the country and in the world at large in regard to labor. The importance of acquiring an approach to this question as set forth in the Great Labor Encyclicals "cannot be too strongly emphasized."

William J. Farber, president of the Branch, presided.

NEW ROSARY SOCIETY CLUB

The Rosary Society has begun signing up members for the Merchandise Club. The items which may be purchased on the Club Plan are Blankets, which are wool mixed with rayon and cotton.

The leaders of the Rosary Bands have books illustrating and describing the goods. They will be very glad to contact anyone who wishes to sign up. Their goal is 100 members.

The Merchandise Club plan is an easy way of purchasing high class goods which sells for higher prices. It is also a way of raising a substantial sum of money for the church. The interest evidenced by the leaders is an indication that the Club will really go "over the top."

The Merchandise Club is a plan for your convenience to purchase goods which make a very acceptable gift for relatives or friends. The young married people ought to be very interested in getting such fine furnishings for their new home! Leaflets will be given out next Sunday, May 2. Just sign and drop in any collection basket.

SCAPULAR MILITIA

About 60 members are enrolled in the Scapular Militia of Corpus Christi Church. All of these are women. The Militia makes the brown Scapular possible for our men in service. If a man is wounded the Priest is notified speedily because the Scapular immediately identifies him as a Catholic.

Men as well as women can make a donation of a dollar to this worthy cause. In return the contributors are remembered in Masses at the Carmelite Monastery for one year. Men can contribute their dollar offering with the Priests in the Vestry or drop the offering in any envelope marked "Scapular Militia" with their name and address.

Women who make a contribution and wish to make the Scapulars may do the same. The work is very simple. Full illustrated instructions come with the material.
