EASTERN DIOCESAN

Catholic Courier

PARISH NEWS

Bishop Will Pontificate At Noon On Easter Sunday

Joyous Rites To Mark Feast Of Resurrection In Diocese Churches

Diocesan-wide observances of the joyous Feast of the Resurrection will be centered in the Solemn Pontifical Mass to be celebrated by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester at 12:15 P. M. (noon) at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

In every church of the Rochester diocese there will be appropriate services on Easter Sunday. Music symbolic of the hope that lives throughout the world in commemoration of the Redeemer's Triumph over sin and death will be heard.

Preaches at Cathedral

The Easter sermon at the Cathedral will this year, be preached by the Rev. Dominic Grandy, C.P., of New York, an outstanding pulpit orator of the Congregation of the Passionists.

His Excellency the Bishop will be assisted in the Cathedral ceremony by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, pastor, as Assistant Priest and by priests of the Cathedral. The special Easter music at Sacred Heart Cathedral will be sung by the Cathedral Men's Choir directed by Raymond J. Fessenmyer, who is also Aquinas Institute's musical director.

The Men's Choir will sing the "Pax Sacerdos" composed by Mr. Fessenmyer and dedicated to Bishop Kearney as the Solemn Pontifical services open.

The Three Hour services on Good Friday will begin at noon with the Mass of the Presanctified being celebrated by the Bishop. The services will be conducted by Father Dominic Grandy.

Other three-hour services will be conducted in the downtown churches of Old St. Mary's, St. Joseph's, Our Lady of Victory and St. Patrick's. Where possible in the press of wartime activity, employers will permit employees' time off between 12 noon and 3 P. M. to attend the services.

The CATHOLIC COURIER and other diocesan offices will be closed by direction of His Excellency, Bishop Kearney on Good Friday and Holy Saturday.

As announced at the beginning of Lent the law of fast and abstinence will be in force on Good Friday and on Holy Saturday until noon.

Recovered, Soldier Wins Purple Heart

AUBURN.—Frank Kulis of 17 Poland Street has received word that his son, Pfc John W. Kulis, has recovered from his wounds, received Sept. 25, 1942, in action in Northwest Africa. He has been commended and awarded the Purple Heart for heroism.

Private First Class Kulis enlisted in the Regular Army over a year ago. He has two brothers in the service of Uncle Sam. One is Paratrooper Stephen J. Kulis, who is stationed at Alliance Base, Alliance, Nebraska. The other is Pvt. William J. Kulis of the U. S. Signal Corps and stationed at Charlotte Field, near Montoul, Ill. The three brothers are graduates of St. Elizabeth's Parochial School and were active in athletics with the Polish Falcons. Stephen is a graduate of East High School and his brothers are graduates of Central High School.

Chamber of Commerce Reelects Slate

GENEVA.—Officers of Geneva Chamber of Commerce were reelected for another year at a meeting of directors in the offices of the civic organization on Apr. 15.

Officers re-elected were: President, E. M. Eaves; vice-president, Thomas K. Bahny; vice-president, F. J. Myers; treasurer, N. E. Cole; secretary, John F. Grisson.

Guard the Tongue

It is not enough to forbid our own tongue to murmur; we must also refuse to listen to murmurers.—Ven. Louis de Granada.

Sergeant Stevens Reported Wounded In North Africa

AUBURN.—Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens of 208 Genesee Street have received word that their son, Sergt. Anthony J. Stevens, 22, has been wounded in action in North Africa. No details were given.

Sergeant Stevens who enlisted in February, 1941, received his basic training in the Heavy Armored Force at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

He became an expert gunner with the tank corps and he was the first of the American invasion troops on the Continent of Africa. Only several days ago, friends and relatives received letters from the popular young Auburn athlete, and in them he told of receiving their Christmas gifts on the battlefield and which, he wrote, made him most happy and for which he expressed thanks. He told of feeling fine and of being extremely busy.

Sergeant Stevens better known as "Tony" to his many friends is a graduate of St. Aloysius Parochial School, East High School, attended Canisius Seminary and he was in Business Administration, Syracuse University when he entered the service.

He was an all-round athlete, excelling in football, baseball and basketball. The father, John Stevens, conducts a clothing store in State Street.

Armed Services Keep Auburn Youths Active At Posts Throughout World

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Tyhanic Sr. of 127 Washington Street received a letter from their son John Tyhanic, Jr. in which he told of his safe arrival in North Africa where he is with a US Medical Detachment. Private Tyhanic is a graduate of Auburn High School and of Christian Brothers Academy, Syracuse. For several years he had his own orchestra that played in various parts of the country and in which he was the drummer. Private Tyhanic hopes to meet his brother, Pvt. Joseph Tyhanic who has been with the forces in North Africa.

Cadet William H. Hosley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Kenyon of 73 Prospect Street has entered the Classification Center at the Army Air Center, Nashville, Tenn. At the Center, Cadet Greene will take physical and psychological examinations to determine for which branch of air-crew service he is best fitted. Physical training, academic study and military drill are also part of cadet training at the Center. This is the first step in a training program that will eventually graduate Cadet Greene as a commissioned officer in the Army Air Forces.

PFC Daniele DeSocio, son of Mrs. Felice DeSocio, 118 Lake Avenue, has successfully completed a course in airplane mechanics at Chanute Field School, Ill., a unit of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command. He has been in service five months and was recently transferred from Rantoul, Illinois to Kearns, Utah. PFC DeSocio is a former employe of the Columbian Rope Company.

Sergt. Harry Rice who has been spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Rice of 65 First Avenue has returned to Columbus Army Air Field at Columbus, Ohio.

Lieut. E. D. Taylor has returned to Camp Pickett, Va., after visiting his wife and their twins, Gerard and Nedra at 14½ Poole Street.

Second Lieut. John W. Wattles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wattles of 295 Elizabeth Street has been promoted to first lieutenant. He is stationed with the Medical Dept. of the Army at 32nd General Hospital, Atterbury, Indiana.

John Manila, son of Mrs. Frank Wilson of 10 Owasco Street, left this morning for Fort Niagara. Monday evening, he was the guest of honor at a family farewell party at the family home at which time he was presented with a gold band wrist watch. The recruit is a graduate of East High School, where he was a four-letter man in sports, excelling in football and basketball. He was in his junior year in Western Teachers State College at Bowling Green, Ky.

Corp. John Galbally, son of Mr. and Mrs. Galbally of 34 Maple St., has returned to his duties with the U. S. Air Corps at Pittsburgh, Pa. after spending the past week-end at his home in this city. Corp. Galbally who enlisted last November and who is a graduate of East High School has two brothers in the service. One is Thomas Galbally, seaman second class, U. S. Navy, stationed at Davisville, R. I. Seaman Galbally who has been in the service one year is a graduate of East High School. He with his wife, the former Miss Beatrice Twomey, make their home at 38 Burt Avenue. Mrs. Galbally is now engaged in defense work with the American Locomotive Company. The other brothers, Pvt. Edward Galbally, who was inducted into the service, March 10, is now stationed at an Army base in South Carolina. Before entering the Army he was employed with the dairy. Corporal Galbally and Seaman Galbally were prominent in athletics in high school and are members of the Columbian Squires.

Aviation Cadet Eugen F. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Reynolds of 134 Chapman Avenue has recently been qualified as pilot at Nashville, Tenn., and now is taking his pre-flight training at Santa Ana, Cal. Prior to entering the service, he was connected with the office staff at Hammond and Irving Steel Plant. His brother, Pvt. Robert W. Reynolds, is also in California having been assigned to the Service Battalion of the Quartermasters Corps at San Bernardino. The two brothers are graduates of St. Mary's Parochial School and of Holy Family High School. Their cousin PFC William J. Ryan is also in California being stationed at the Marine Air Base at Elliorn, Santa Ana. Recently Cadet Reynolds was visited by his cousin. The three young Auburnians are hoping for a joyous get together out on the coast.

David Catalano, seaman second class, who is stationed with a construction battalion at Camp Endicott, R. I., has returned to camp after spending a nine-day furlough at the home of his mother, Mrs. Theresa Catalano, 8 Green Street. Catalano entered the service on Jan. 17. He is a graduate of East High School.

PFC Joseph McGrail has resumed his duties at Santa Ana, California after passing a ten-day furlough with his parents and friends in this city. Private First Class McGrail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGrail of 36 Water St., was employed by the Columbian Rope Company, prior to his induction in July. His brother, Pvt. Edward McGrail has returned to Camp Tyson, Tenn., after spending a ten day furlough with his parents. Private McGrail left Auburn on Dec. 21, 1942 and prior to his induction was employed at the Seneca Ordnance Depot, Romulus.

Paul E. McLane, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McLane, 16 School Street, has been promoted to the rank of corporal. He is a member of the 106th Basic Flying Training Squadron, stationed at the Enid (Okla.) Army Flying School.

PFC Dan DiVietro of the 7th C. A., son of Mrs. Filomena DiVietro of 7 Hulbert Street has returned to his post at Fort Totten, N. Y. after spending a five day furlough with his family. Also a guest of Mrs. DiVietro who spent his furlough here was PFC Nathan Glover also of Fort Totten, N. Y. 7th C. A. whose home is in Tallahassee, Florida. Also serving in the armed services are four more sons of Mrs. Filomena DiVietro, Corp. Anthony DiVietro, who is in North Africa; PFC Lenard DiVietro, who is with a bomber squadron at Hurst Field, Texas; Pvt. Claude DiVietro who is attached to a medical unit and is on desert

(Continued on Page 24)

Honor Postal Clerk Leaving For Service

AUBURN.—Charles H. Lindsley, a mail clerk at the Auburn post-office, left on Friday for Fort Niagara. Lindsley was given a send off by his associates at the Clam and Brady Restaurant on Wednesday evening. Following dinner, an informal evening of sociability was enjoyed by 30 men who handle the mail for Uncle Sam.

Harry McMahon, master of ceremonies, presented the guest of honor with a liberal purse on behalf of his associates. "Chuck" made an appropriate response. He has been in the post office service for four years.

SAVE A SOLDIER'S LIFE—BE A BLOOD DONOR

Auburn Girls Serve Here And Abroad

Miss Ann O'Hearn of 2 Madison Ave., Miss Lucille A. Dougherty and Miss Mary Rita Shaw of 71 Seymour St., are among the first enrollees of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in quota for training at Branch A of the Fifth WAAC Training Center at Camp Haton, La. They will take the intensive WAAC basic training course at the Fifth WAAC Training Center before being assigned to the non-combatant army jobs for which their civilian experience and Army technical training have best adapted them.

Lieut. Esther E. McCarthy of the U. S. Army Nurses' Corps is spending a furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. McCarthy, 12 Paul St. Lieut. McCarthy who has been in service five months is stationed at the Chenango Personnel Replacement Depot, Greenville, Pa. She has a brother, Pvt. Jeremiah W. McCarthy, in the service and he is located at Camp Claiborne, La.

Lieut. McCarthy who graduated in 1942 from the Auburn City Hospital School of Nursing is with two of her classmates at Greenville. They are Lieut. Gertrude Sanglacomo Clancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sanglacomo of 239 Seymour Street, and Lieut. Eileen Boyle of Seneca Falls. The three marched in places of honor in the huge War Bond parade last Saturday in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Lieut. Clancy was the winner of the Auburn City Hospital Scholarship, class of 1942. Her husband, Lieut. John Clancy, a finance officer, has just arrived in North Africa. Lieut. Clancy, who has been in the service since 1942, is a native of Pontiac Michigan and a graduate of the University of Detroit. Previously to entering the service, he was with the Finance Dept. of General Motors in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Musico of 88 Lansing St. have received a letter from their daughter, Lieut. Rita E. Musico, who is stationed at a U. S. Army hospital somewhere in England. Lieut. Musico, a graduate of Holy Family High School and of Auburn City Hospital School of Nursing has been in England since last November following basic training with the U. S. Nurses' Corps in the United States. Lieut. Musico recently had her picture taken with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's and her secretary when they paid a visit to a wounded soldier in a room at the hospital in England.

Martyrs of Christ

The martyrs of Christ feared neither death nor pain. They lived not to themselves, but for Him, and found in death itself the way to life.—St. Augustine.

DAIRYLEA

MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS

Buy War Bonds

127 CLARK STREET AUBURN, N. Y.

Telephone 2475