

U.S. BISHOPS' GIFT AIDS BRITISH IN SERVICE

LONDON — Members of the British armed forces, now and when they return home, will benefit from the social work to be carried on with the gift of $25,000 which the Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, Archbishop of New York and Military Vicar, presented to the name of the Bishops' War Emergency and Relief Commission of the United States during the recent crisis here. Archbishop Spellman made the presentation to the Most Rev. Edward Heenan, Vice-Captain of the Archbishop of Westminster. The money is to be allocated at the discretion of the Bishop Myers and Lady Holroyde, a representative here of the American Catholic Committee for British Relief.

Interned in France, Two British Girls Make Religious Professions

LONDON — News of the probable escape of two British girls to internment camps in France has reached Non-Catholic persons in North London. They heard that they had been interned in France since they were 15 and were in a convent at St. Germain, France, three years later. She made her religious profession in the spring of 1943. Her parents have decided that she should return to her home in London. She is now in the hands of the British authorities. She is now in the hands of the British authorities. She is now in the hands of the British authorities.
