Church Has Answer For Today's Problems, St. John's Men Told

St. John's men and the world today was the theme discussed by the Rev. William A. Deane, pastor of St. John's Church, at the annual point of view breakfast of the Holy Name Society and St. John's Society on Sunday, April 12.

For the Catholic... and, indeed, for the world if it could but see... God through His Church has provided standards of belief and rules of conduct.

Father Deane said that matters of faith and morals in which the Church is inflexible, are found in all departments of human life—science, education, literature and art.

The Rev. Wendell J. Winterrott paid tribute to the memory of Father Steinhilber, who died Feb. 15, Louis J. Lutz, president of St. John's Society, and Joseph Fischel, president of the Holy Name Society, also spoke.
