List Numbers For Feeney Concert May 12

As May 12 approaches many lists are appearing with great interest to the John Feeney concert planned by the Rochester Association for that evening at the Auditorium.

His popularity as the concert goes and over the radio is growing steadily, and his admirers in the Rochester field a great triumph for him in Rochester.

The concert program is arranged to include favorite selections from Liszt, Chopin, Debussy, Ravel, and others.

War Adds Two Mass Centers in England

LONDON.—War conditions have brought two more Mass centers into existence.

The cancellation of the Mass in the village school is the new Mass center at Hutton Hand, near Scarborough, and Mass is said there chiefly for those who have left the cities for safety.
