First School Session Set At Catholic Press Meeting

TOLEDO (NC)—For the first time in the history of the Catholic Press Association of the United States, a sectional meeting of the Catholic school press will be held on May 29 in connection with the annual convention here. Faculty members and staff members of college and high school publications in the Toledo district have been invited to attend the session.

"The Papal Peace Program and the Press" will be the theme for discussion at the school press meeting. The Rev. Donald D. Hehir, C.SS.R., Editor of The Liguorian and rector of the Redemptorist Seminary, Crownsmere, Wis., will deliver the main address. A panel discussion will follow with representatives of Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo in charge.

The program is being arranged under the general direction of Dr. J. L. O'Sullivan, Director of the Catholic School Press Association, with Sister Mary Grace, O.M.I., faculty advisor of student publications at Central Catholic High School, Toledo, as local chairman. The Rev. J. L. Harrington, principal of Central Catholic High School, will preside at the session.

All Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo and neighboring cities, have been invited to send delegates, whether or not student publications are sponsored in the school.

CATHOLIC ACTION DISCUSSED BY PRIESTS IN FRANCE

VATICAN CITY. — Every 20 priests of the Diocese of Nice gather fortnightly with their Bishop, the Most Rev. Paul Rémond, to discuss Catholic Action. These priests are the chaplains or ecclesiastical counsellors of the various youth, charitable and social welfare organizations of the Diocese and whenever conditions permit, some national chaplain or counsellor from another French Diocese meets with them.
