Zelens in announcement of youth activities, Father Wise, following his ordination on June 19, 1939, became contact pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Colchester, where for 13 years he labored on his sacerdotal duties. In this work for the young people he organized and staged many musical and dramatic entertainments.

First Priest-Mixer

While at Immaculate Conception parish he took out a private pilot's license and was the first priest of the Rochester Diocese to become an aviator.

Transferred to Assistant Pastor at St. Patrick's Church, Elletts, on June 28, 1942, he continued his work with the youth until named Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Newville, and St. Joachim's, Canisteo, on May 4, 1943.

As far as was known, Father Wise had been in good health. In March he underwent a tonsillectomy to correct a slight arthritic condition. At the time of the operation he had a general physical examination which showed only a slight heart murmur, which the doctor at the time did not believe would ever become serious. During the past Lenten season he had preached at St. Ann's Church, in Hornell.

Born March 24, 1902, he made his preliminary studies at Auburn High School and prepared for the Holy Priesthood at St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries.

Widely known in the diocese, he was highly esteemed for his sacerdotal zeal and genial disposition. Word of his death brought a distinct shock to the many who knew him.
