First School Session Set At Catholic Press Meeting

TOLEDO (SC)—For the first time in the history of the Catholic Press Association of the United States a national meeting of the Catholic school press will be held on May 20 in connection with the annual convention here. Faculty members and staff members of college and high school publications in the Toledo district have been invited to attend the session.

"The Papal Peace Program and the Press" will be the theme for discussion at the school press meeting. The Rev. Donald D. Mintz, C.SS.R., Editor of The Liguorian and rector of the Redemptorist Seminary, Oconomowoc, Wis., will deliver the main address. A panel discussion will follow with representatives of Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo in charge.

The program is being arranged under the general direction of Dr. J. L. O'Sullivan, Director of the Catholic School Press Association, with Sister Mary Grace, O.S.U., faculty adviser of student publications at Central Catholic High School, Toledo, as local chairman. The Rev. J. L. Harrington, principal of Central Catholic High School, will preside at the meeting.

All Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo and neighboring cities, have been invited to send delegates, whether or not student publications are sponsored in the school.

CATHOLIC ACTION DISCUSSED BY PRIESTS IN FRANCE

VATICAN CITY. — Some 30 priests of the Diocese of Nice gather fortnightly with their Bishop, the Most Rev. Paul Remond, to discuss Catholic Action. These priests are the chaplains or ecclesiastical counsellors of the various youth, charitable and social welfare organizations of the Diocese and whenever conditions permit, some national chaplain or counsellor from another French Diocese meets with them.

Our Blessed Mother Mary, Queen, hasten your return. Help us by your prayers, Mary, that we may live worthy of your love.

ORIOLES ARE SO SHY

Issued by the National Shakespeare Association, 8 West 40th St., New York City. Those marked are appearing weekly at the theatres.

When the news came that the Baltimore Orioles were in training at Sarasota, Florida, hundreds of baseball fans were sure a couple were in the group, and a few (very) hopeful fans, which the shade of [illegible] were sure [illegible] Florida to [illegible] group stayed aloof and [illegible] and made [illegible] a thing of [illegible].

Nuthin' else we can't be called other than shy.

The biggest one is a bat, which might work out to be the saddest one of all, for the saddest thing in baseball [illegible] shy bat.

"Why they build another bat and spring."

"Yes, the orioles are probably build on that same bat's head spring."

"I will punish for them," quoth Shylock, and every time [illegible] all wishes to adopt his method a operation that started by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
