

First School Session Set At Catholic Press Meeting

TOLEDO (NC)—For the first time in the history of the Catholic Press Association of the United States a national meeting of the Catholic school press will be held on May 20.

In connection with the annual convention here, faculty members and staff members of colleges and high school publications in the Toledo district have been invited to attend the session.

"The Paper-Piece Program and the Press" will be the theme for discussion at the school press meeting. The Rev. Donald D. Miller, C.S.B., Editor of The Light and the Taper and rector of the Redemptorist Seminary, Occoquan, Va., will deliver the main address. A panel discussion will follow with representatives of Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo in charge.

The program is being arranged under the general direction of Dr. J. L. O'Sullivan, Director of the Catholic School Press Association, with Sister Mary Greer, O.S.U., faculty adviser of student publications at Central Catholic High School, Toledo, as local chairman. The Rev. J. L. Harrington, principal of Central Catholic High School, will preside at the session.

All Catholic high schools and colleges in Toledo and neighboring cities, have been invited to send delegates, whether or not student publications are sponsored in the school.

CATHOLIC ACTION DISCUSSED BY PRIESTS IN FRANCE

VATICAN CITY.—Some 20 priests of the Diocese of Nice gathered forthrightly with their bishop, the Most Rev. Paul Raymond, to discuss Catholic Action. These priests are the chaplains or ecclesiastical counselors of the various youth, charitable and social welfare organizations of the diocese and whenever conditions permit, some national chaplains or counselors from another French Diocese meet with them.

ORIOLES ARE SO SHY

By [Name] [Location]

When the team was down to its last man, the Orioles were shying away from the crowd. The manager, Earl Weaver, was seen to be talking to the players, trying to get them to relax and play for the fans. The crowd was cheering and waving, but the Orioles were just trying to get through the inning.

Three Movies Classed As 'B'

Three of the new motion pictures are listed as Class B, "objectionable in part," by the National Legion of Decency. The films are: "The Day After Tomorrow," "The Day After Tomorrow," and "The Day After Tomorrow." The Legion of Decency is a national organization that rates movies based on their content.
