

Close Scranton Church Badly Damaged By Mine's Caving In

Scranton (AP) — Scranton damaged by a mine collapse, the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, which was destroyed only two weeks ago of a cave-in of the mine, is being repaired by the parish. The parish is the largest of the city. The mine is the largest of the city. The mine is the largest of the city.

An official inspection by State Building Inspector John McGuire revealed that the entire sanctuary floor had collapsed. The roof was cracked, and a number of girders were bending from roof.

The subsidence occurred while the Very Rev. Father Giovanni pastor, and the Rev. Thomas A. O'Brien assistant, both of the Scranton diocese of Scranton at St. Joseph, were making Christmas. Recently some cave-in caused damage to the rectory and to the St. Joseph High School.

The Purpose of Life

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where rust and moth consume and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth consumes, nor thieves break in and steal.

Seek, first the Kingdom of God and His justice. . . I came that they may have life, and have it more abundantly. . . This is everlasting life, that they may know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Whom Thou hast sent, Jesus Christ. . . What does it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, but suffers the loss of his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

If the dead can no longer speak how can they profit by an indulgence gained for them?

The Catholic Church does not apply directly the infinite merits of Christ and the superabundant merits of the saints to the souls in Purgatory, over whom she has jurisdiction. She can only offer these merits to God by way of suffrage, and leave the application entirely to His good pleasure. Thus, a Catholic may gain a Plenary Indulgence and offer it up for a particular soul in Purgatory, but God's not pledged to apply it, and it by no means follows that this soul is at once ushered into the presence of God. This seems, however, to be the ordinary Protestant notion, although it was expressly condemned by the Council of Orange, A.D. 429.

To settle a dispute, my friend says that it is a mortal sin to marry without love. I say that it is not.

To marry without love is not necessarily a sin. It is, however, a most risky thing to do. For when one marries, husband and wife are commended by God to love, and if there is no love before marriage, there is apt to be none after the wedding, and hence, a violation of God's command.

Why is it that the Catholic Church is so often persecuted?

There are many and various reasons, but the Church is being persecuted for the same reason that Christ was persecuted in His time. Christ told His apostles: "If the world hates you, know that it has hated Me before you. If you were of the world, the world would love what is its own. But because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you: No servant is greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me, they will persecute you also" (John 15: 18-20). Persecution then is an unmistakable sign of divine approval upon our Catholic faith.

I used the expression "to hear Mass," and I was told that this is not a correct expression. Is there anything wrong with it?

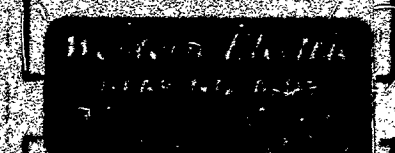

This common expression is used to mean presence at Mass for the purpose of worship and in particular in order to fulfill the Sunday obligation. Its use today is often condemned on the ground that it suggests that the part of the people is merely to attend passively. To "assist at Mass" is a better phrase as it suggests that the
