Family Life Conference Names Iowa Woman As 1943 'Catholic Mother'

HONORS MOTHER OF 2 PRIESTS, NUN, 3 IN ARMED SERVICE

WASHINGTON (NC)

The selection of Mrs. Leo A. Dehner, of Burlington, Ia., as the "Catholic Mother of 1943" by the National Catholic Conference on Family Life was announced today. Mrs. Dehner is the mother of eight children.

Of her six boys, two are priests—the Rev. Eugene Dehner and the Rev. Lambert Dehner. Three sons are in the armed service: Thomas, 21, now in the Near East with the Army Engineers; Leo, 21, aviation radio man with the Navy in the South Pacific; and Bernard, 22, aviation cadet in the Army Air Corps now awaiting call to active duty. Her youngest child, Raymond, 11, attends St. John's Parochial School in Burlington. One daughter is Sister Ann of the Benedictines, at Carmel of the Trinity, San Diego. The other daughter, Mary Katharine, now Mrs. John L. McFadden, resides in Burlington and is the mother of four children.

Announcement of the selection of Mrs. Dehner was made here by Miss Mary Callahan, President of the National Catholic Conference on Family Life. The choice is announced each year on May 4, the Feast of St. Monica, patroness of Christian mothers. A medal from the Shrine of Christian Mothers, headed at St. Augustine, Fla., will be presented to Mrs. Dehner.

Mrs. Dehner was born Celestina Miller in the parish in which she and her husband reared their family. She was baptized, received her First Holy Communion, was confirmed and married in St. John's Church. This is true also of her husband. They will soon celebrate their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

"It would be folly," said the woman chosen as the "Catholic Mother of 1943," "to say that all has been sunshine during the 30 years. There was the general run of ups and downs which one encounters during the process of raising a family, but, when we reach the place in life where we can see the fruits of our labor and sacrifice, the difficulties and hardships are overshadowed by the joys and happiness derived from it all.

"Our home was always teeming with activity. There was never a dull moment for any of us. Our home now seems quite empty, but we are not alone—we still have little Raymond.

"God has always been so generous with us and has blessed us so abundantly. In His kind providence He blessed us with Raymond ten years after our seventh child was born. No greater blessing could have befallen our home. We are proud of the family God gave us and we thank Him for the success with which He has blessed our efforts."

The medal last year was awarded to Mrs. Peter W. Bartholome, mother of the Most Rev. Peter W. Bartholome, Coadjutor Bishop of St. Cloud; the Rev. John Bartholome, of Wabasha, Minn., and none other children.

Works of St. Thomas

RIO DE JANEIRO—Minister of Education Gustavo Capurro, who recently reintroduced the study of the classics in Brazilian high schools, has now ordered an official Portuguese translation of all the works of St. Thomas Aquinas.

USO SERVICE Mrs. Leo A. Dehner is provided at USO Club for workers here. At Rochester's USO, Mrs. Robert C. (Helen) Morrison, USO representative, stands to the right. Representative Charles McDonald, left, and smiling Miss Officer Richard Campbell of the Canadian Air Force. Continued USO service depends upon Community and War Chest success.
