Houseparty Opens Varied College Program for May

By DORIS DUNLEA

The long-awaited junior houseparty, which is taking the place of the traditional Junior Prom this year, will be held May 7, 8 and 9 at the Rotary Swimming Camp, Durant-Eastman Park. Baseball and horseback riding will take the place of treat books and on Saturday evening the faculty will attend a program of entertainment on which the game, "Truth or Consequences," will take a leading part.

Jane Kreckel, class president, is honorary chairman, and Betty Dooly is general chairman. Jean Teddy, chairman of arrangements, is assisted by Pat Goodwin, Mary Leach, Irene Paolone and Virginia Sullivan.

The main committee consists of Virginia Gould, chairman; Helen Dorchak, Marjorie Kler, Marie Leinberger, Dorothy O'Malley and Ruth Lorenz. Members of the invitations committee are Edna Ferrero, chairman; Marian Koshan, Eileen Mahoney and Mary Frances Nelder. Catherine McCarthy is chairman of finances and her assistants are DeVerde Foley, Avril Cochran and Angeline Comfort.

In charge of entertainment are Agnes Murtha, chairman; Rita Meyers, Mary Jane Schwartz, Peggy Flaherty, Marie Murphy, Dorothy Ann Kelly and Shirley Woodman. Members of the publicity committee are Helen Macchia, chairman; Helen Hammond and Doris Dunlea.

Concert Scheduled

The annual Glee Club and Orchestra concert will be held May 14 at the Nazareth College Auditorium. Ellen Flynn, president of the Glee Club, and Geraldine Vandewater, president of the Orchestra, are honorary chairmen.

Helen Hammond and Mary Jane Schwartz are general chairmen.

The ticket committee consists of Mary Hunsan, chairman; Avril Cochran, Marie Murphy, Beverly Jones, Rosemary Tierney, Helen Dorchak, Shirley Woodman and Betty Keegan. Patricia Doyle has charge of patrons and will be assisted by Pat Gleason, Marcilla Caulfield, Antoinette Luraschi, Mary Meiszahl, Mary Esther Danby, Betty Eganey, Rita Macca, Marie Berl and D. Foley. Clarisse Martens, in charge of decorations, is assisted by Catherine McCarthy, Virginia Bogdan, chairman, and Florence McGlinis are in charge of programs. Corinne Freer will be assisted with properties by Agnes O'Herron, Mary Ann Ludwig and Mary Knapp.

Pat Barry, publicity, will be aided by Helen Macchia and Barbara Kelly, and Rita Meyers, invitations, by Mildred Clark and M. Maul.

Debate Club Supper

The Debate Club will give a picnic supper, May 11, to welcome the new members joining the club and to bid farewell to the senior members. The committee for the picnic consists of Gertrude DiPasquale, Florence Sina, Jane Kreckel, Ruth Lorenz, Helen Macchia, Clara Yarter, Dorothy Wegman, Jean Foley, Jean Schantz, Daisy Welch, Carolyn Rovas and Eric Klemens.

Ruth Lorenz has been elected the new president of the club and Jean Schantz, manager, to succeed Cathy Stitt and Nancy Dineen.

Mission Field Day

Field Day is back again! The event, which is sponsored by the French Mission Unit, will be held May 11 at the college. The program will include a baseball game between faculty and students, a basketball game between boarders and day boys, the playoffs in the badminton tournaments and a demonstration by the band.

Community singing, a popular innovation last year, will be included this year under the direction of Miss Mabel Smith of Rochester. Gertrude DiPasquale is general chairman. Committees are under the chairmanship of the following: Patricia O'Grady, baseball team; Virginia Bauman, refreshments; and Betty Warney, tags.

Conscience Ails

Conscience was intended to produce a good life, radiating dependability, satisfying, and when instead it produces a life of crime, cramped and gloomy, it is plainly sick. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Five Win Nazareth College Deanery Scholarships

Names of the winners of the Nazareth College Deanery Scholarships awarded to Catholic High School students graduating from Catholic and public high schools in the Rochester Diocese in June, 1943, are announced today.

They are:
Rochester Deanery, Miss Adelaide Condon, Nazareth Academy, Rochester.
Auburn Deanery, Elizabeth J. Dunphy, East High School, Auburn.

Cornwall Deanery, Evelyn De Mott, Cornwall Free Academy.
Genoa Deanery, Mary Elizabeth Flynn, Westville High School.

Clinton Deanery, Eleanor T. Mahoney, Clinton Catholic High School.

These scholarships are awarded on the basis of scholarship, leadership, personality, financial status and character recommendation.

They were offered for the first time in 1941 in grateful recognition of the generous assistance given by the people of the diocese to the Nazareth College Building Fund which helped to make possible the erection of the new college buildings on East Ave., the Administration Building, the Gymnasium and the Dormitory.

Nazareth College Deanery Scholarships will be offered again in 1944.
