Funeral Rites of the Week in Auburn

St. Alphonsus — Mrs. Louis Kessler Morgan, wife of Howard S. Morgan of 235 Clark Street Road, died Saturday morning in Auburn City Hospital after a brief illness. Mrs. Morgan is well known as she and her husband operated a florist business in Clark Street Road for a number of years. Her husband is a patient in Auburn City Hospital, where he was taken last Tuesday following a heart attack he suffered while in the business section of the city. Besides her husband, Mrs. Morgan is survived by one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kingsbury of Bedford Hills, and one nephew, Dudley Kingsbury of Rochester. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning from the home with services at St. Alphonsus Church. Burial was in Throopville Cemetery.

St. Aloysius — Patrick J. Reardon died at his home, 182 Cottage Street, on Friday evening after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Reardon came to Auburn 25 years ago and has resided in the Seventh Ward during that time. He was a communicant of St. Aloysius Church, and a member of the Holy Name Society of that parish. Mr. Reardon is survived by his wife; two daughters, Miss Jane Reardon and Mrs. Glenn Beaton of Auburn; three sons, Paul and John of Auburn and Joseph, who is in the U.S. service stationed at Gordon Johnson Camp, Florida; five grandchildren; one brother, William of Cortland. The funeral was held from the home on Monday morning with services at St. Aloysius Church. Rev. Joseph Haffey was celebrant of a solemn High Mass of requiem; Rev. John O'Malley was deacon and Rev. J. B. Crowley was sub-deacon. Burial was in the family plot in St. Joseph's Cemetery, where the committal service was read by Father Haffey. Bearers were Walter Yantch, Edward Fitzgerald, John Doty, Jeremiah Fitzgerald, Timothy Murely and Frank Ryan.

Holy Family — Miss Mary Ann Doyle, who for many years served the state in responsible positions at several insti-

Doyle, president, presided at the meeting.

RELIGIOUS CLASSES — Religious instruction for Public Grammar School pupils will be given on Saturday morning at 9:30. Religious instruction for Public High School pupils will be given on Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 p. m.

LEAGUE BREAKFAST

Rev. Richard T. Torney, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, was the guest speaker at the annual communion breakfast of the League of the Sacred Heart of Holy Family Church on Sunday morning. Father Torney chose as his topic, "Present Day events as they are related to Religion." Rev. John Brill, moderator of the League, also spoke briefly.

Mrs. Edward Heywid, president presided at the breakfast meeting. The members of the Sacred Heart League received a Corporated Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass.

"Know you not that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" I Corinthians 3:16.

tutions, died Monday afternoon at the home of her brother, William E. Doyle 21 Mattie Street. Miss Doyle was married in the Women's Prison in Auburn for eight years and after that institution was no longer used as a place for women prisoners she was appointed to a similar position at Bedford Hills. She retired about five years ago. Miss Doyle was a communicant of St. Alphonsus Church. Besides her brother she is survived by a nephew, Pvt. Edward Doyle, U.S.A., now stationed in Michigan; three nieces, the Misses Evelyn and Dorothy Doyle and Mrs. A. P. Gapecki, all of Auburn and by several cousins.

Funeral services were held from the home, 24 Mattie Street, on Thursday morning with services at St. Alphonsus Church. Rev. Gerard Amann sang the requiem High Mass with Rev. Gerard Gelfell as deacon and Rev. F. G. Straub as sub-deacon. Burial was in the family plot in St. Bernard's Cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Father Straub, assisted by Fathers Amann and Gelfell. Bearers were James Roddy, John DeVore, Thomas Donovan, James Whelan, Austin Freeman and Dennis Nolan.

St. Mary's — After a brief illness with pneumonia William J. Coyle of 66 West Street died at Mercy Hospital on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Coyle was born in Auburn and nearly all his life had lived in the western part of the city. He was a lifelong member of St. Mary's Church and belonged to the Holy Name Society of that parish. He is survived by a grandson, Richard Carle.

The funeral was held on Friday with services at St. Mary's Church. Of the solemn High Mass of requiem that was offered, Rev. Joseph M. McNamara was celebrant; Rev. Dr. W. E. Cowan was deacon, and Rev. Richard Torney was sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the committal service was read by Dr. Cowan assisted by Fathers McNamara and Torney. Bearers were John Gibby, T. Joseph Cuddy, George Shamon, Clarence Conner, Frank Shields and Joseph Fitzsimons.
