Colorful Rites To Mark May Day At Nazareth

By DORIS DUNLEA

The ninth annual May Day will be held at the Nazareth College campus, May 17, with all its traditional beauty and colorfulness.

The program for the day will commence with the celebration of Mass by the Most Rev. James M. Keating. A procession of the students in cap and gown and the crowning of the Blessed Virgin at peak of the day and Sodality stanzas will complete the morning schedule. The theme of the senior class shrine will be The Prayers of the Blessed Virgin. The junior class shrine is entitled The Fighting Front and Patriotic Good-will will portray the Virgin. The Labor Front is the title of the sophomore shrine with Janet Melsenahl as Our Lady. The freshman class will present The Month of May.

At 3 P. M. the crowning of the May Queen will take place. The identity of the May Queen and her senior attendants will be disclosed. Her other attendants will be Virginia Gould and Virginia Sullivan, juniors; Jane Lally and Dorothy Smith, sophomores; and Helen Mary Bauman and Eileen Farley, freshmen. Surrounded by her flower girls and pages the Queen will take her place on the throne, where she will receive the crown from Clarissa Martens, president of the Undergraduate Association.

Hansel and Gretel, adapted by Virginia Sullivan, junior, and directed by Miss Rita Scott of the speech department, is the title of the pageant which will follow. Kay Cutler will be the narrator. Kay Foley will portray Hansel and Betty Fearon, Gretel; Shirley Woodman, Peter; Helen Spala, Gertrude; Rosemary Dooley, the witch; Angelina Valencia, the bewitched; and Catherine Flicker, the sandman. Other members of the cast include Rita Meyers, Helen Dorshak, Corinne Freer, Betty Keegan, Marie Murphy, Mary Farrell, Mildred Clark, Agnes O'Herron and Beverly Jones.

The May Pole Dance will complete the program. The dancers will be Mary Jane Hendrick, Helen Grabosky, Geraldine Vandewater, Dorothy O'Malley, Helen Dorshak, Eileen Mahoney, Virginia Klee, Lois Stoller, Joan Duggan, Mary Ann Ludwig, Helen Maxwell and Margaret McDermott.

The Sister Class Banquets between the senior-sophomore classes and the junior-freshman classes will complete the day. Pat Barry is honorary chairman and Florence Sims is general chairman for the event.

A Cinderella Ball, under the auspices of the Sodality, will be the highlight of "fast minute" events of the school year. The dance will be held at the college ballroom, May 15, with the cadets of the Army Air Corps as guests. Jack Shepherd and his orchestra will play for the Ball which will start at 8 P. M. and end at the stroke of 12.

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL

National Council of Catholic Women

Office—Catholic Evidence Library

Main Floor—Columbus Civic Centre

At the request of Rochester Red Cross our Rochester Diocesan secretary is sending a letter to representatives of our Catholic organizations urging their members to sign up for the Red Cross Home Nursing Course.

This course is designed to increase the individual's resourcefulness in the prevention of illness, the promotion of personal, family and community health, and the home care of the sick in the event of minor illness and emergencies. Physicians, nurses, dentists and dietitians are being withdrawn in increasing numbers from civilian to military service to give essential care to our ever expanding military personnel. Because of the acute shortage of nurses, thousands of young women are being recruited as students in nursing schools to help fill the gap and supplement the work of professional nurses in hospitals and clinics.

Young women are being trained as volunteer nurse's aides. But this is not enough. At least one member in every family should learn how to handle his own and his family's health and sickness problems more effectively. The

Sight-Seeing Restricted At St. Peter's Basilica

LONDON. — Restrictions on sight-seeing in St. Peter's, Rome, have been imposed by Cardinal Tedeschini, Archbishop of the Basilica, Vatican Radio announces.

In the future sight-seers will not be admitted before 10 A. M. on ordinary days and before 1 P. M. on certain major feast days. Visits will be forbidden altogether when solemn functions are taking place in the Basilica.

boils then cover and cook over boiling water for 1/2 hour.

2.—Pour mush into wet bread pan about 7 1/2 inches or into 2 wet baking powder cans, 1 lb. size. 3.—Cook, let stand until firm and chilled.

4.—Turn out of pan or can, slice 1/4 inch thick, dip in flour. 5.—Heat small amount bacon fat or other meat drippings in heavy frying pan and fry mush on both sides until golden brown.

6.—Add a little more fat from time to time as additional slices are browned. Too much fat in beginning causes slices of mush to break and not brown.

7.—Serve with dinner meat with gravy or with syrup for breakfast with crisp bacon. Serves 6—about 1/2 slices.

GNOCCHI

1.—Prepare corn meal mush as for Fried Corn Meal Mush and mold in bread pan. Cut in 1-inch squares.

2.—Arrange in 1 quart casserole dish, using 1/2 lb. cheese sliced over each layer of mush and season with salt and pepper.

3.—Add 1 cup milk, cover and bake in a moderately hot oven (400°F) 30 minutes. Uncover, bake until brown, allow 15 minutes.

They are troubled about many things. But one thing is necessary.—Luce, X, 41, 42.

ON THE HOME FRONT

MAKING SEW-ON CHAIR COVERS

Sew-on covers of chintz or other smart cottons are always neat and trim and, since the pieces are all sewn in the old upholstery of the chair with rather long stitches, it is not difficult to remove the cover for washing or cleaning. If washed at home it is much easier to handle separate pieces than an entire slip cover.

A sew-on cover should be fitted with a 4-inch tuck-in around the spring seat and 1-inch extra allowances. Use tailor's chalk to mark stitching lines and indicate pieces to have welting attached to edges. Here, welting is used for the side seams of the inside center back section; across the front of the seat; for the top and bottom of the outside; and all around the front of the arm sections. The sketch shows how welting and un-welting pieces are sewn in place. The welting hides the stitches if you use heavy duty thread matching the cover covering.

NOTE: The new BOOK 10 of the series of booklets offered with these articles gives other valuable pointers on making both sew-on covers and removable slip covers. Book 9 gives directions for repairing the springs of chairs before covering them. Book 8 and 10 cost 15c each plus 2c each to cover postage and handling. Send requests for booklets direct to Mrs. Spears, Drawer 151, Bedford Hills, N. Y. (Copyright)
