Troops Hold Court Of Honor

Celebrating a successful year of activities, Troops 249 and 250 of Holy Apostles Church held a Court of Honor in their school hall on Wednesday evening, Apr. 12.

With Alexander Deitrich, chairman of the advancement committee of the troop committee, acting as chairman of the court of honor, awards of rank ranging from tenderfoot to star scout, together with numerous merit badges, were awarded.

In troop 249, tenderfoot awards were presented to Scouts AUGIE DiCicco, Richard Flaherty, Ronald Hockadel, George Masters, James O'Connell and Paul Romano. Second class awards went to Scouts FALCON BOVANI, Frank (Tony) Michael Duffy, Anthony Iobello, Norbert Miller, Richard Newbauer, Kenneth Smith, Lawrence Uchio. Star scout badges were presented to Scouts Jerry Miller and Donald Planert. Merit badges in Personal Health, Pioneering, Public Health, Stamp Collecting and Woodcarving were awarded to Scout Jerry Miller, while Scout Donald Planert earned merit badges in Aerodynamics, Astronautics, Airplane Design, Airplane Structure, First Aid and Safety.

In troop 250, second class awards were presented to Scouts Remo Braccione, Ronald Braccione, Joseph Gordinier, Edward Keon, David Crow, John Pratt, Alfred Schmitt, Richard Tackelover and Richard Voelck. The star scout badge went to Scout Donald Clancy. Merit badges in Pioneering, Personal Health, Public Health, Reading, Safety and Swimming were awarded to Scout Donald Clancy, while Scout Michael J. Jekins earned merit badges in Pioneering, Personal Health, Reading, and Safety.

Following these presentations, the Parish Patrol of Troop 249, under the leadership of Patrol Leader Martin Mulhern, became the recipient of a plaque stating that they had won a recent inter-parish patrol contest. Suspending from this plaque was a hand-carved honor roll of the names of the Scouts in that patrol.

Short talks were given by the Rev. George V. Predmore, pastor; the Rev. Bernard R. Cleary, troop chaplain; James E. Spillman, assistant Scout executive of the newly-formed Otsego Council, Boy Scouts of America, and Frank H. Einsack, district commissioner of the German division.

Edward Ceyer and Edward Keon are the scoutmasters of Troops 249 and 250 respectively.

The members of the troop committee for these two troops include: Raymond Mary, chairman; Francis Thomas, secretary and treasurer; Alexander Deitrich, advancement; Lawrence Keon, health and safety; and the Rev. Bernard R. Cleary, troop chaplain.

Program of the court of honor was concluded by the playing of Taps.

SODAL TALK

CROWNING OF MAY QUEEN
Miss Marion Hochly, chairman of Our Lady's Committee of the Sodality Union and Prefect of St. Michael's Sodality, crowned Our Lady as Queen of the May during services at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday, May 9. This celebration of World Sodality Day was one of many throughout the nation on that day. Preceding the coronation, representatives of each Parish Sodality formed a Living Rosary. Each member of the Living Rosary carried a vigil light which was placed in front of the Shrine of the Blessed Mother. Each Sodality Prefect carried a rose which was also presented to Our Lady at her Shrine.

Rev. Maynard Connell of St. Bernard's Seminary delivered the sermon. Following the sermon, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated by Rev. George W. Eckl, pastor of St. Andrew's Church.

Perpetual Help Sodality
Reports are still coming in concerning the Consolation gifts for Our Lady during her Son's Passion. On Holy Thursday, during Holy Hour, Helen Schoenherr, chairman of Our Lady's Committee of Perpetual Help Sodality, presented Mary with a bouquet of roses and a spiritual bouquet to console her in her grief.

Annual Banquet
Each year Sodalists look forward to the gala banquet of the Sodality Union. Formerly it was held at one of the Rochester Hotels but due to present food conditions, it was decided that the banquet be held at Immaculate Conception Hall on May 31 at 6:45. Most Rev. James E. Kearney will be guest speaker. Estelle Doyle, Eucharistic Committee Chairman, has been chosen as Toastmistress. Evelyn Contestable, general Chairman, is now at work with her committee planning to make this banquet the best ever.

Pamphlets
Have you read the new pamphlet, "The Questions They Always Ask" by Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J. In this booklet, Father Lord treats very briefly and concisely the most common problems presented to him by modern young people. This is a treat which no Sodalist should miss. Not only is this pamphlet a masterpiece for Sodalists but will do much more good if spread throughout your entire parish.

Speaking of pamphlets, the U. S. O. will welcome any used pamphlets for the men in service.

Getting On In The World

JUMPING TO CONCLUSIONS
One of the most obstinacious men we've ever known had one of the reddest noses that ever decorated the face of any man. People who jumped to the conclusion that his nose was so bright a hue because he was addicted to the little brown jug—well, they were as mistaken as all of us are apt to be when we jump to conclusions.

Sometimes we accuse people of being miserly. They have high salaries, don't dress extravagantly or spend money on luxuries. What do they do with their money? we ask, as if it were any business of ours. And then one day we find out that there are generous donations to the missions, a young man being helped through college or seminary, or struggling relatives aided. If such people are misers, they are hoarding treasures no thief can steal, no rust destroy.

A man may be brusque of speech or exceptionally reticent. It isn't genuine brusqueness in the first instance, haughtiness in the second. In both cases it's shyness. The poor fellow really is all right, only self-conscious.

Patriotic Recital Slated on May 16

The pupils of Joseph M. LaPorta will observe "I Am An American Day" by holding their combined violin and piano recital at 83 Cleveland St. at 2 P. M. The program will feature patriotic selections, solos and duets.

HALT MISSION WORK

Vatican City.—A restriction of Catholic activities in behalf of the Missions and on Catholic war work has been imposed by the papal of Germany, a Vatican radio broadcast has just reported.

FRIEND OF SCIENCE

Ottawa.—The Catholic Church is a friend of true science and scientists, the Most Rev. Alexander Vachon, Archbishop of Ottawa, told an audience here. Himself a prominent scientist, Archbishop Vachon pointed out that of the great scientists a large number have been Catholics, and not one ever found that his faith interfered with or hindered his work in any way.
