'PENNY BAZAAR' LISTED

By MARYDORR HARRON
AUBURN.—The Junior Sodality will conduct a "Penny Bazaar" on Wednesday evening, May 19. The affair will commence at 8 o'clock and the sodalists extend a cordial invitation to their friends, former sodalists and parishioners to join them at this annual event. The proceeds will be used for Catholic Action purposes.

Miss Betty Bradley, prefect of the Junior Sodality, is General Chairman of the "Penny Bazaar." Miss Monica Robinson and Miss Kathleen Kelly are in charge of the War Bond Campaign and they are being assisted by Marjorie Hickey, Gloria LaHood and Katherine Driscoll.

Miss Marie Antonacci is in charge of the Candy Counter and her aides are Doris Flynn, Miss Agnes Glynn, Lola DiCenzo and Yolanda Curricelli. Miss Betty Brennan is directing a game and her assistants are Dolores Robinson, Lorraine Bradley, and Jean Wade. Frances Mallon is chairman of a special booth, and Kay Foster, Pat O'Brien and Kay Donovan are the members of her committee. Jean McMahon and Anastasia Leonard will tell fortunes and Ann Lane is directing the Slide Shows assisted by Jean Mitchell, Monica Robinson, Betty O'Brien, Anne Mallon and Betty Falvey. Rita Burns is in charge of the "wheel," assisted by Kay Hogan, Pat Angler, Mildred Quinn and Elma Cannicelli. Louise Clapp and Rita Cappello will be found at the Fish Pond and "if you care for refreshments Ann Feeley and her committee composed of Barbara Sanderson, Joan Elliot, Margaret Burns and Margaret Lewis will be glad to take care of you."

The Sodality promises a real entertainment, "one like you have never seen before, and they will be looking for you" on Wednesday evening, May 19 at Lyceum Hall.

MONIE N. BARRING

The sodalists of St. Mary's Senior Sodality completed their course in Home Nursing at the Red Cross House last Monday evening. Miss Anna Falvey, R.N., instructed the members of the sodality. A dinner at the Imperial Lounge was enjoyed by the sodality members on Thursday evening. Guests were the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen, pastor of St. Mary's and Rev. Dennis Hickey, moderator of the Sodality, and Miss Anna Falvey. The following members of the Home Nursing Group received a certificate upon completion of the work at Red Cross House: Madeline Antonacci, Margaret Bent, Jean Callahan, Mary Callahan, Betty Conroy, Anne Corcoran, Camille Danelli, Theresa Dolan, Pauline Engert, Dorothy Fleig, Mary Ganey, Marian Harris, Jeanne Hickey, Myrtle Hickey, Virginia McCarthy, Antoinette Mentone, Patricia Robinson, Margaret Ryan, Nan Trojani and Margaret Walsh.

CORPORATE COMMUNION

The Rosary and Scapular Society will receive Corporate Communion at the 7:30 o'clock Mass on next Sunday morning. The table aids will be reserved for the members. The May Meeting will be held on Thursday evening in Lyceum Hall. The members will attend May Devotions in the Church at 7:30.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE

The dance sponsored by the High School students of St. Mary's was a huge success according to reports from the younger members of the parish. There were over 300 in attendance at the party and such an enjoyable evening was spent by the high schoolers that they asked that another dance be held in the near future.

ST. ALOYSIUS (Auburn)

SCOUT INVESTITURE

AUBURN.—Last Sunday night, in the presence of Scout officials, parents, relatives and friends, the Scouts of Troop No. 24 of St. Aloysius' Church were invested in the Tenderfoot rank and received various awards.

The ceremony began in the Scout Meeting Room, where the Charter was presented to Paul J. Graney, Chairman of the Troop Committee, by Lee Harter, Chairman of Scout Advancement Committee. The Scout Executive, Frederick Crook, along with Ferdinand Green, Chairman of Troops 12 and 21, and Harold Ide, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 12, assisted Mr. Harter, who also conducted a Court of Honor for Second Class Scouts.

Following this, the meeting adjourned to the Church where the Hedges and other insignias were blessed by the Troop Chaplain, Rev. Joseph P. Haffey, who also gave a talk on the Scout Oath and thanked the Scout Officials, Troop Committee, Scoutmaster and guests for their kind cooperation. Father Haffey also thanked the Rev. John B. Crowley, Pastor of St. Aloysius' Church, for his kind interest and support, without which the Troop would not be a success.

The Scouts were invested in the Tenderfoot rank by the Chaplain; these were: Michael Agati, Nicholas Rossi, Peter Colella.

Second Class Certificates were presented to Edward Giammine, Nicholas Rossi, John Malton, Carl DePalma, Christopher DePalma, Peter Colella, Louis Vascò, Phillip Colella.

Star Scout Hedges and Merit Hedges were presented to Joseph E. Graney, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster.

Membership Certificates were presented to John Ballant, LeVerne Moore, Andrew Mendel, Donald Cavich.

Presentation of Scouter Certificates were made to: Thomas F. Molloy, Scoutmaster; Paul J. Graney, Chairman of Troop Committee; Frank Audet, Troop Treasurer; Capt. Wendell Linnenbach, Chairman of Public Relations Committee; Rev. Joseph P. Haffey, Troop Chaplain.

Francis O'Connor, Chairman of Troop Committee of 1942, is now in the U. S. Army.

ALUMNI MASS

On Mother's Day, Sunday, May 9, a high Mass was celebrated in St. Aloysius' Church at the request of the St. Aloysius Alumni for all members of the organization who are serving in the armed forces of their country and also for the mothers of these servicemen and women.

The Mass was sung at 2 o'clock by the Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of the church, who also delivered the sermon. The children's choir, composed of girls from the upper grades of St. Aloysius' School, sang the Gregorian Mass "Agnus Dei."

Families of those engaged in military service were especially invited to be present. Many former graduates of St. Aloysius' School returned to their home church for this occasion.

Social activities of the Alumni were curtailed during the past year, the regular meetings being devoted strictly to business. The meeting held recently will be the last for this important season.

Officers of the society are: President, Edward Fennecy; first vice-president, John Howard; second vice-president, Miss Frances Donovan; treasurer, Miss May Lashman; secretary, Miss Mary Agnes Brennan; trustees, Mrs. Frederick Bennett, Paul Graney and George Caskey.

ST. ALPHONSUS, Auburn

SODALITY BREAKFAST

AUBURN.—The Young Ladies Sodality of St. Alphonsus Church held their annual Communion breakfast on Sunday morning at the Cabernet Hotel. Miss Jane Doyle was chairman of the Breakfast Committee. Mrs. Yoland Cerretti, guest vocalist, sang the "Ave Maria" and other selections.

SOCIETY'S BANQUET

The annual banquet of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society of St. Alphonsus Church was held on Wednesday evening at the Imperial Lounge. Mrs. Frank Richards was hostess for the occasion and Mrs. Theodore Matlack was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Rev. Gerard Aman, spiritual director and Rev. Gerard Gelfi, assistant at St. Alphonsus, were guests. Margaret Harris Doan's pupils gave a dance and song recital. Attendance honors went to Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Elizabeth Fennecy and Mrs. J. Kuse was awarded the prize for the oldest lady present.

Rev. John Brill, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church was the guest speaker. Father Brill in his talk stressed the importance of the mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts keeping up "The Prayer Front" at home.
