Nazareth Lists Dr. Thorning For Baccalaureate Address

By DORIS DUNLEA

The speaker at Baccalaureate Mass, May 27, will be Rev. Joseph F. Thorning, Ph.D., Litt. D., professor of sociology at St. Mary's Seminary, Emmetsburg, Maryland.

Dr. Thorning is the author of "Builders of the Social Order." He has traveled extensively in South America and in Europe and is known as an authority on conditions in Brazil. In addition he is a member of the Executive Council of the Inter-American Cultural Relations.

The Baccalaureate rites will begin with a procession of the students in cap and gown from the college to the Mother House of the Sisters of St. Joseph where Solemn Pontifical High Mass will be celebrated by Most Rev. James E. Kearney in the Holy Family Chapel. The students, assisted by Father Benedict Kilmann, will sing.

In the afternoon the seniors will be entertained at a luncheon given by the alumnae. Their former "big sister class" will act as hostesses.

Moving Up Day

The annual Moving Up Day will be held Friday, May 28, at the college auditorium. The program will commence with a procession in which a guard of honor will be formed for the seniors by the juniors, sophomores and freshmen. Charles Martens, president of the Undergraduate Association, will tell the significance of the ceremony, after which the presentation of gifts will take place. Patricia Barry, senior president, will pay tribute to the Dean. The presentation of class banners will follow. The ceremony will close with the singing of the Alma Mater by the assembly.

Named May Queen

At the ninth annual May Day, held on May 17, the May Queen whose identity is held in secrecy until she appears in the procession, was disclosed as Joyce Loftus. Her senior attendants were Charisse Martens and Patricia Barry.

Two Appointed

The last elections of the year resulted in the following appointments: Helen Macchia as head of the college Press Bureau and Jean Chiavaroli, a junior, as editor of the Gleaner.

Victory Recipes

Consumer Committees, County, City, War Councils

Rhubarb brings a springtime flavor to menus. Make into sauce and sweeten with a scant measure war-time saving of sugar. Serve very cold. Uncooked strawberries may be combined with stewed rhubarb.

Rhubarb Sauce may be served with the meat course as a relish or used in making a number of desserts.

2 lbs. rhubarb, 1 cup sugar (may be reduced).

1.—Cut off leaves and stem end of stalks, wash and cut in 1 in. pieces.

2.—Place rhubarb and sugar in top of double boiler and cook over boiling water until rhubarb is soft.

3.—When very tart, corn syrup or honey may be added to sweeten.

Rhubarb Shortcakes—Four rhubarb sauce over hot individual shortcakes or serve on slices of sponge cake.

Shortcake—Use standard recipe for baking powder biscuit and add 1 tbsp. sugar. Shortening may be increased from 2 tbs. to 4 tbs. if richness is desired.

Rhubarb Jelly

1.—Roll shortcake dough into rectangle about 1/2 in. thick; spread with melted margarine.

2.—Cover with raw diced and sweetened rhubarb to which a few chopped raisins have been added.

3.—Roll up like a jelly roll, cut off slices 1/2 in. thick; place cut side down in a greased biscuit pan and bake 15-20 min. in a hot oven (450). Makes 10 to 12 slices.

4.—Serve with cream, top milk or Golden Sauce.

ON THE HOME FRONT

A CLOSET FOR SEWING EQUIPMENT

Many women who have learned to sew for the Red Cross are also sewing for themselves. They are thinking of sewing as a craft and taking pride in their tools. Many who do not have space for a sewing room are planning efficient closets to house equipment. Here is a model sewing cupboard from my new book Better Dressmaking. There have been many requests for dimensions and here they are:

The cupboard is six and one-half feet high, four feet wide and twenty inches deep. The dress form compartment is five feet six inches high and twenty-four inches wide. The ironing board compartment is four feet ten inches high and eight inches wide. This leaves ample space for shelves for the pressing cushions shown at the top; the sleeve board; ironing water pan and sponge; stout slide-in boxes for findings; notions and patterns; and a lower shelf for fabrics. The construction throughout is of half-inch plywood.

NOTE: If you are in need of more closets and storage space you will find directions in BOOK 7 for a linen closet built into waste space. Also in BOOK 8 there are directions for making door pockets to use every inch of space in your clothes closets. Booklets are 10c each plus 2c each to cover postage and handling. Send re-

'Catholic Mother' Of 1943' Held As Inspiration

In bestowing the medal awarded annually by the National Catholic Conference on Family Life upon Mrs. Leo A. Dehner, of Burlington, Ia., and proclaiming her the "Catholic Mother of 1943" the Most Rev. Henry F. Rehnman, Bishop of Davenport, paid tribute to her and her family as "truly an inspiration for all Catholic families."

Mrs. Dehner is the mother of two priests and a nun, and three others of her eight children are in the armed services. Her sons—Father Eugene and Lambert Dehner—were deacon and subdeacon, respectively, at a Solemn Mass celebrated in the Dehner's parish Church of St. John.

In the course of his sermon, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Ambros J. Burke, President of St. Ambrose College, Davenport, said:

"Only in America is Mother's Day celebrated and yet it is very much needed in all countries in the world. It is a beautiful thought to pay tribute to our mothers. It is particularly significant for us on this occasion because we not only celebrate Mother's Day but we are honoring the Catholic Mother of America for 1943. There can be no doubt that Mrs. Dehner deserves this honor because we need only to look at her lovely family for all the proof that is needed."

"In honoring the Catholic Mother we honor the ideal for which this stands—Christian Motherhood. And we likewise honor the person who embodies this ideal for each and everyone of us—our mothers."

"This day can also be the occasion for some reflection on the part of mothers themselves. Their first duty is in the home above all else. There they can build and adorn sacred temples of their very flesh and bone. Their own children. There can be no more worthy enterprise for any woman in the world than this."

"How thankful we should be that here in America mothers can bring their children into the world in an atmosphere where motherhood is respected. How tragic our fate as a nation would be today if we did not have our brave and stalwart children to defend us and our way of life."

"We must always be thankful for our strong Christian homelife here in America. We must be ready to defend with all our strength any attempt to weaken the ties that bind family life together. We can bring no greater blessing to womanhood throughout the world than to make it possible for them to establish and maintain a stable and united family life."
