BOY SCOUTS HONORED

PENN YAN.—Marking the formal opening of the new room recently built by the troop committee to be used as Scout headquarters, Troop 41, Boy Scouts of America, held a court of honor on Tuesday, May 19, in St. Michael's church hall.
Parents and friends of the Scouts were guests.
Presentation of the 1943 charter to the troop, an American Flag from the Johnson-Costello post of the American Legion, and an honor plaque from Finger Lakes council of the Boy Scouts of America, 1943 place.
The troop was organized in February, 1941, and has actively participated in all scouting endeavors in war work and civilian defense. The former assistant scoutmaster, Charles Reynolds, and one Scout, Robert Oatman, are now in the army and Merchant marine respectively.

Exec. Executive John Smith of Geneva was present to issue the charter to the sponsoring institution, St. Michael's Church and during the course of the evening he gave a showing of movies depicting camp life of Scout Camp Babcock-Hovey on Seneca Lake.

Frank J. Erwin is scoutmaster of the troop for the third successive year. The troop committee at present consists of Charles Dizin, chairman; Rev. John P. O'Heine, Rev. Thomas Kane, Conrad Tumpcy, James A. Townsend, Francis Townsend, Edgar Lampson and Daniel Clements.

Due to food rationing the annual father and son banquet was cancelled for this year, but light refreshments were served after the meeting.
