

ST. JAMES (Waverly)

EXPRESS SYMPATHIES

By Miss T. Foley

WAVERLY — Sincere sympathy of the congregation is extended to our pastor, Father Lyons and his sister, Mrs. Cleary in the sudden death of Mrs. Cleary's husband John Cleary in Avon, Thursday night. Father Lyons and Father Keenan are attending the funeral.

C.D.A. Communion

Court J. and Mrs. No. 235 Catholic Daughters of America attended a 7 o'clock Mass Sunday in a body and received their annual Holy Communion. Father Keenan preached a sermon in keeping with the occasion and "I Am An American" Sunday.

After Mass a delicious breakfast was served to the members and invited guests by the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion in their rooms on Broad Street.

Our guests from out of town were District Deputy Miss Katherine Leary of Ithaca and Mrs. Klein newly elected Vice Grand Regent of Ithaca, Mrs. Edward Skelly of Addison Court, Mrs. Guilino of Corning Court, Mrs. Donovan of Elmira Court and Mrs. Bernard Haughey of Watkins Glenn a member of our own Court.

Miss Agnes McCarthy, Mrs. James Markham and Miss Mary K. Kinney gave very enjoyable readings in keeping with our Communion and the day and Miss Leary and our Grand Regent Mrs. Sheahan also spoke of the signifificance of both days. Mrs. Sheahan presided as toastmistress and introduced different members. Announcement of a card party May 28 was made. Plans and table music was furnished during breakfast by Dorothy Keller and Robert Bennet of Seyre and was very much enjoyed.

Service Letters

Miss Alice Devlin, president of St. James Society and Altar Society and other members of the society have received many interesting letters thanking the society for gifts sent to members of our parish in service at home and abroad. Most of the letters besides expressing thanks for the gifts say they are very glad to hear from their own parish and to be remembered.

Schnitzen-Ricketts

Miss Ruth A. Ricketts, daughter of Burgess Howard J. Ricketts of Harrison Street, Seyre, was married to Cadet Paul Robert Schnitzen of the United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Schnitzen, 224 Pennsylvania Avenue, Waverly, Friday morning at the Church of the Epiphany, Seyre. Rev. John Gough performed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of the Seyre Senior High School, and was employed at the O'Neill jewelry store in Seyre. Cadet Schnitzen is a graduate of the Waverly Senior high school, Cornell university, 1941, and Harvard Business School, 1943. He is attending Officers Candidate school at Camp Lee, Va.

St. Vincent De Paul, Corning

PRIEST TRANSFERRED

CORNING — The Rev. Joseph E. Gulliford, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church announced Sunday that the Rev. Joseph F. McCarthy, assistant pastor at St. Vincent's, for the past three years, has been transferred to Holy Apostles Church, Rochester where he will be assistant to the Rev. George V. Fredmore, pastor there. High praise was given Father McCarthy by Father Gulliford for his work in Corning.

Father McCarthy, a native of Rochester, prepared at St. Andrew's Seminary and completed his education at St. Bernard's Seminary. He was ordained May 18, 1940 in Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral, Rochester. He came to Corning on June 4 of that year.

'St. Patrick's Jeep' Students' Bond Goal

DUBUQUE, Iowa — Pupils of St. Patrick's school here have purchased $1,200 in War Stamps and Bonds, and have attained their goal of the price of a "St. Patrick's Jeep." They have applied to the Dubuque County War Bond Sales Committee for a Minute Man Jeep.

Feeling that prayer and sacrifice are an necessary as material aid, to the winning of the war, the pupils have had a Novena of Masses for Peace, offered by priests of the parish.

Many of the students have also pledged themselves to plant Victory Gardens.

LAUDS MISSION SOCIETY

San Francisco — An expression of good will and appreciation of the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith was received from Madame Ching Kai-Shek, wife of China's Generalissimo, by the Rev. Vincent E. McCarthy, Director of the Society in the Archdiocese of San Francisco, on her recent visit here.

Reports To Army

LITTLE ROCK — The Rev. William E. Glavin, former professor at St. John's Seminary, has been commissioned in the Army and has reported at the Chaplain's Training School at Harvard University.

Queen of May

CORNING — Miss Betty Levette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Levette, 141 Onondaga Street resigned as Queen of the May, Friday, 14, at the Northside High School. She was crowned by Miss Rosemary Cowley last year's queen.

Miss Levette, a graduate of St. Vincent dePaul school, is a member of the 1944 graduating class at Northside High School.

Corning Deaths

CORNING — Nicholas Andronaco, 58, 247 Kingsbury Ave., died Thursday, May 15, at Mt. Morris Hospital. Mr. Andronaco was born in Italy, the son of Joseph and Josephine Andronaco, came to this country in 1913, moving directly to Corning. His marriage to Mary Cavallaro of Corning was solemnized Dec. 29, 1923, at St. Vincent's de Paul's Church by the late Rev. Augustine Temmerman. Mr. Andronaco, an employer of the Corning Glass Works for 25 years, was a member of St. Vincent's de Paul's Church and the Holy Name Society.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Joseph, a senior at Northside School, and Nicholas, who will be graduated this year from St. Vincent's School; two daughters, Catherine and Josephine; a sister, Mary of Italy; four brothers, Dominic of Italy, Louis and Patry of Harrison, N. J., and Frank of Corning; several aunts and nephews.

The funeral was held Monday, May 17, from the home at 8:30 A. M. and at St. Vincent's de Paul's Church at 9:30 A. M. The Rev. Joseph F. McCarthy celebrated the solemn high Mass, assisted by the Rev. William Tolin and the Rev. Joseph Gulliford as deacon and subdeacon respectively. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.
