BOY SCOUTS HONORED

PENN YAN.—Mirroring the formal opening of the new room recently built by the troop committee to be used as Scout headquarters, Troop 41, Boy Scouts of America, held a court of honor on Tuesday, May 19, in St. Michael's church hall. Parents and friends of the Scouts were guests. Presentation of the 1943 charter to the troop, an American flag from the Johnson-Costello post of the American legion, and an honor plaque from Edgar Latta, council of the Boy Scouts of America, took place. The troop was organized in February, 1941, and has actively participated in all scouting endeavors in war work and civilian defense. The former assistant scoutmaster, Charles Reynolds, and one Scout, Robert Quinn, are now in the army and Merchant marine respectively.

Class Feted At Dansville

DANSVILLE.—In a handsome setting of Blue and Gold—the Class Colors—the Graduating Class of 1943 of St. Mary's Parochial School in Dansville was given a banquet in the Auditorium of St. Mary's School Monday evening, May 17. The floral adornments of the tables were sweet peas. The guests present included Dansville clergy: the Rev. Edward M. Scheid, the Rev. Edward H. Ball, the Rev. Orrin W. Felton, also Sister M. Michtelde, principal of the Parochial School at Perkinsville and former member of St. Mary's School faculty, and the present members of the faculty. Following the processional there was the singing of "America," recitation "In Flanders Fields" and the banquet. This program followed, with Bernard Seeley toastmaster.
