ST. HYACINTH'S, Auburn

HONOR COPERNICUS

AUBURN — The Poles of Auburn honored the memory of Copernicus on the 400th anniversary of his death with an appropriate program on Sunday with services at St. Hyacinth's Church and a program at the Polish Home. A solemn high Mass was celebrated for the welfare of the parish boys in the service of their country at the request of the Polish Relief Fund which sponsored the whole program. All church societies attended the Mass.

On Sunday afternoon the societies formed in front of the church and marched in a body for the afternoon vespers at the church. After vespers the parishioners marched to the Polish Home where the following program was carried out in honor of the 400th anniversary of Copernicus:

- Opening by President Joseph Dzurzynski.
- National American and Polish anthems by the St. Cecilia Choir with Prof. Frank Ciepla directing.
- Introduction of the master of ceremonies, Rev. Jerome Holubowicz, O.M.C., pastor of St. Hyacinth's.
- Greetings in name of city by Councilman Harry R. Melone.
- "Mikola Kopernik" recitation by Mary Ella.
- Polish song by the St. Cecilia Choir.
- "Kopernik z Torunia" recitation by Shirley Mikowicz.
- Speech, "Nicolaus Copernicus" by Rev. Jerome Holubowicz, O.M.C.
- "De Nona Luce" recitation by Dorothy Larkin.
- Song by the St. Cecilia Choir.
- "Kasztanowca Tragedia Maja" recitation by Stella Maraga.

ENTERS RELIGIOUS

Miss Mary Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of Cady Street was one of the eight young women who received the habit of the Sisters of Mercy at the ceremonies held in St. John the Evangelist Church in Rochester. His Excellency, Bishop Kearney officiated at the ceremonies and after Mass addressed the young assembly of people who witnessed the impressive ceremony. Miss Wilson will be known in religion as Sister M. Brendan. She is a graduate of Holy Family Parochial School and of Holy Family High School. She was the second highest member of the graduating class of 1942 of Holy Family High School and was active in all school affairs.

SACRED HEART DEVOTIONS

Devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart will be held in Holy Family Church on Friday evening at 7:30. The members of the League of the Sacred Heart will hold their June meeting following the services.

ROSARY SOCIETY

The Rosary Society will receive Corporate Communion on Sunday morning at the 8:00 o'clock Mass.

Half of Class Joins Up In Service

IRONWOOD, Mich.—(NC)—The first war class in the history of St. Anabrook High School, here, has been graduated. Of the 18 boys in the graduating class, ten already have been called into the armed service. The other male members as well as the female members of the class have lined themselves up in war work, while some await calls into the men and women's branches of the armed forces.

Indissoluble Bond

Boston.—Col. William F. Kernan, author of last year's best seller, "Defense Will Not Win the War," has written a new book, "We Can Win This War." Colonel Kernan, a convert to the Catholic faith, embodies a particular Catholic tone in the last chapter of his new book. He states that a fact clearly established through the nineteen centuries of history reveals an "intimate and indissoluble bond between Democracy and Christianity." The book was published by Little, Brown & Co.

Fourth Award

Brooklyn.—While Col. Emmett O'Donnell, of the Army Air Force, was home with his wife and two sons in Jamaica, L. I., on a brief furlough, he received word that he had been given his fourth award for service in the Air Corps.
