ELECTED as Prior and Superior of the Dominican House of Studies, Washington, D. C., is the Very Rev. Charles Ignatius Livingston, O.P., formerly professor of Moral and Pastoral Theology at the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D. C., a Pontifical Institute.

St. Andrew's Parish HOLY NAME SUNDAY

Members of the Holy Name Society and other men of the parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 A. M. Mass, Sunday, June 20. The men will meet in the school hall at 7:55 A. M. and will be escorted to the church by the Knights of St. John and Ladies' Drill Team.

Sunday being Father's Day and Trinity Sunday, a large attendance is expected. This will also mark the closing of the Easter time, and will be the last opportunity to receive Holy Communion thereby fulfilling the Easter duty. All who have not yet made their Easter duty are obligated to do so on June 20.

GRADUATION EXERCISES
Sunday afternoon, June 20, at 4 P. M., there will be graduating exercises for the children of St. Andrew's School. This will be the largest class of graduates in several years. The Rev. John M. Duffy, diocesan superintendent, Catholic Schools, will be the guest speaker. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

LAWN FESTIVAL
During the past week tickets have been sent out for the annual Lawn Festival to take place Friday and Saturday, July 16 and 17. Parishioners are asked to dispose of the tickets sent to them. "We expect to make each night a Banner Night," the committee in charge states and assures every one of an enjoyable time. Royal Mutter is chairman, assisted by Henry Schlueter as Vice-Chairman.

Furnish Yardstick
"The Catholic Church is the custodian of the moral law—the moral law which is the same for nations, as for individuals. The visible head of that Church, in the person of Pope Pius XII, has stated objective moral rules in terms of the rights and duties of the family of nations. These rules furnish Catholics with a yardstick, with standards of justice and equity on which to base their efforts for future international order and peace."—Catholic Action.

Has Not Criticized

What General France's attitude toward the United States if we do not profess to know; unlike Joseph Stalin, our ally, he has not criticized us. But anyone viewing the matter dispassionately must admit that our publicists and secular press have given him little reason to love us.—The Catholic News, New York.

Satisfies Better

"In a broad sense a consumer's co-operative society exists every time that a number of persons, feeling the same need, join together collectively to satisfy it better than they could do by individual means."—Charles Glavin

Memorial Services Held For First World War Dead

Annual Memorial Services were held in the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, on Sunday, May 16, for Corporal Raymond J. Berwind, the first member of the parish to give his life for his country in the present war. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berwind, 1124 Joseph Ave., and the husband of Gretchen Berwind.

Corporal Berwind was killed when a bomb struck a hotel "nowhere" in England, where Corporal Berwind was spending a furlough, according to a telegram and letter received by the parents from the War Department. He was a graduate of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, and had been serving in the Armed Forces for the past two years.

During the Memorial Services, Miss Marie G. Berwind, young sister of the late Corporal and member of the present graduating class of the school, played a gold coin on the Purple Heart Roll in memory of her brother, while a bugler sounded taps. She was escorted to the Patriotic Shrine of Our Lady by a Color Guard, including August Meier, Miss Mariella Schmitt, Edward Winterborn and Kathleen Scharr. Ministers of the Mass were the Rev. Francis J. Hoefen, celebrant; the Rev. Milton J. Kelly, deacon; and the Rev. Joseph G. Merkel, subdeacon.

On Monday, Memorial Day, Father Hoefen sang a Solemn Mass of Requiem for the repose of Corporal Berwind's soul. Final Absolution was given at a flag-draped catafalque. The Mass was sung at the request of those who had formerly worked with Corporal Berwind at the Wilmot-Castle Co.

Corporal Berwind is survived by his parents and wife, besides two children, Phyllis and Eleanor, and the following brothers and sisters: Joseph, Bernard and Aloysius; Monica, Rose, Marie and Teresa Berwind. All, with the exception of Bernard, who is stationed in Florida with the Army, are members of the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

SILVIA'S WEDDING

On Saturday, June 12, before the majestic, peony-banked altar of the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Grass, of 8 Ludwig Pl., celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a Solemn High Mass, sung by the Rev. Francis J. Hoefen, assisted by the Reverend Father Joseph G. Merkel and Milton J. Kelly. Father Hoefen read the anniversary prayers and the eucharistic and blessed the jubilarians. Music for the Mass was furnished by the School Choir, and Joseph Schmitt, the parish organist, played appropriate music throughout the Mass.

Present in the Church during the Solemn Mass, besides their close friends, were the son and daughter of the Grasses, Gerard and Verne Marie. Mr. and Mrs. Grass have two sons now in the Armed Forces: Raymond George Grass, now serving somewhere in Hawaii, and George Joseph Grass, stationed at present at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

40 TO GRADUATE

Forty-six pupils of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School will receive their diplomas from the hands of the Rev. Francis J. Hoefen, in impressive ceremonies to be held in the parish church on Friday evening, June 18. The Baccalaureate Address will be given by the Reverend Pastor, and the church portion of the graduations will close with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Following the church service, there will be a program given in honor of the graduates and their parents, to be followed by a reception for the graduates. Harold J. Hargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Hargent, 28 St. Clair St., has been chosen Valedictorian.
