

ST. PATRICK'S (Elmira)

PASS RELIGIOUS TEST

The Elmira Free Academy pupils who attended Religious Instruction at St. Patrick's Church have passed the Diocesan examination for Public High School students. The following received a rating of 80 per cent or over:

Seniors—Vincent De Nino, James McGinn, Robert Murray, Cecile Casey, Barbara Howard, Jean Flynn, Virginia Gervilly, Delores O'Gry, Margaret McCarthy, Barbara Poppleton, Virginia Saylor, Mary Ann Whitford, Betty Kieck.

Juniors—Charles Casey, James Cronin, Buenaventura Gray, Robert Sullivan, Joseph Daly, Alex Di-vary, Betty Fitzgerald, Ann Carrey, Mary Morgan, Mary Murray, Theresa Schwankler, Helen Kaddy.

Sophomores—Frank Brown, Catherine Cowley, Maureen Davis, James Digby, Joseph Flaherty, Rose Gerty, Mary Grace Kelly, Robert Lagowere, William Law-ler, Mary Lucia, Marjorie Meats, William O'Leary, Ann Record, Edward Butler.

Freshmen—Rita Cain, Alice Calahan, Robert Casari, Monica Daly, Ann Divary, Barbara Garvey, De-loris Haxton, Alfred Krough, Be-

non Kibner, Louis Lutton, John McCarthy, Kenneth Moran, Mary Muel, Margaret Murray, Beatrice Nolan, Lawrence O'Connor, Rose Marie O'Brien, Jean Fallisano, Elizabeth Perreman, Sally Brown, Winifred Kelly.

Bishop To Address High Graduates

The Most Rev. James E. Keane, Bishop of Rochester, will address the graduates of Catholic High School on Sunday, June 20, at 7 P. M. in St. Patrick's Church. The Rev. William A. Burns, principal of the high school, will present the graduates, who will receive their diplomas from Bishop Keane. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will follow.

Grammar School

Members of the graduating class of the Eighth Grade will receive their diplomas on Sunday, June 20, at 7:30 P. M. in St. Patrick's Church. Rev. William J. Brick will present the graduates. The Rev. Joseph F. Hogan will give the graduation address. The ceremony will be made in conjunction with the regular Victory Mass service.

ST. ANTHONY'S (Elmira)

Chaplain Vogt Offers Mass

Capt. Francis H. Vogt, former assistant pastor at St. Anthony's, new Army chaplain, was celebrated at the Solemn High Mass offered on Sunday, June 13, at 10:30 A. M. in honor of the feast of St. Anthony. Rev. Albert Monnetti was deacon and Rev. Lawrence Samson, sub-deacon. Father Monnetti preached the sermon in honor of St. Anthony.

Father Vogt is on leave from his station at Camp Beale, Calif., with the Armored Infantry.

Graduation

Twenty-four members of the class of 1943 will receive diplomas and awards of merit at the graduation ceremony on Sunday, June 20, at 7:30 P. M. The graduates will receive Holy Communion that morning in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass, having entered in procession. They will sing the hymns of the Mass.

Rev. Lawrence Samson will present the graduates. Father Monnetti will award the diplomas and make the address. The graduates are: Anna Marie Bellomo, Teresa Bernadel, Teresa Marie Caporocio, Michael Corio, Augustine Casarino, Francis Christoforo, Anna Colletta, Congetta Della Rocca, Matthew DiPitto, Robert Forte, Anthony Leach, Mary Catherine Liberatore, Teresa Liel, Philomena Lucy, Antonette Maliniana, Josephine Montello, James Mucci, Serafina Neterfenne, Richard Root.

John Sebastian, Leon Savino, Francis Trovati, Angelo Visoli, Julia Visoli.

Summer Novena

The first novenas of novena in honor of St. Anthony for the summer were well attended. A novena Mass will be offered every Tuesday at 8 A. M. Evening novenas are at 6:45 and 7:30 P. M., as usual, but the morning service has been discontinued during the summer months. The novena is offered for peace and for the boys in service.

Honor Sacred Heart

Plans for the celebration of the feast of the Sacred Heart were made at last Sunday's meeting of the Sacred Heart men of the parish. The celebration will begin with Solemn High Mass in the morning of July 4, at which all Sacred Heart men will receive Holy Communion. The Ladies of the Sacred Heart are invited to the Mass. A Communion breakfast in the church hall will follow, and in the afternoon, further festivities will take place in the church hall.

Picnic Party

The Daughters of Mary have invited all the girls of the graduating class of the Eighth Grade to a picnic party at 6:30 on June 20. The purpose of the party is to enroll new members in the society. A welcome roast will be enjoyed, with games of Indian baseball and other sports.

Our Lady of Lourdes (Elmira)

FIRST COMMUNION

Nine girls and six boys of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish will receive their first Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday, June 20. Lois Ann Price and Carol Gerry will act as flower girls escorting the children. It was noted in the spiritual banquet offered to Father Schybal for his anniversary, one read simply "My First Holy Communion."

Donations To Church

Three beautiful oriental rugs have been donated for the platform and steps of the altar of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. A pair of floor-standing iron candlesticks have also been contributed to add to the beauty of the sanctuary.

Wedding

Miss Mary Elizabeth Ling, of St. Paul, Minn., and Dr. Ping Liu, resident physician at St. Joseph's Hospital, will be united in marriage on Saturday, June 19, at 10 a. m. in Our Lady of Lourdes Church, by the Rev. Philip McGee, chaplain at the hospital. They will live at 301 W. Water St.

Both Dr. Liu and his bride-to-be were born in China. He has been in America about thirteen years, and expects to use his medical knowledge gained here for the benefit of China after the war.

Many thousands of Americans have bought a few War Stamps, but left their albums half completed. They resemble half-equipped soldiers.

Priest Reminds Rotarians Of Individual Challenge

CORNING—Speaking to the local Rotary Club at the regular meeting Thursday, June 10, at the Baron Steuben Hotel, The Rev. William J. Sutherland, assistant pastor of St. John's Parish, Jakesstown, reminded his audience that each individual Rotarian must meet the challenge which has been hung to him.

"To see in every man a brother, to make your own nation known and loved in you; to have part of yourself in everything you do—that is how we must answer the challenge," said Father Sutherland.

Father Sutherland, a former resident of Corning, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Sutherland, 114 Wabago Ave. His father and his brother Robert, were guests at the luncheon on Thursday.

IN MEMORY OF FIRST CHAPLAIN KILLED

The destroyer escort vessel, USS Schmitt, named in honor of the first chaplain killed in World War II, Father Aloysius H. Schmitt, U.S.N., was launched at the Fort River Shipyard of the Bethlehem Steel Co., at Quincy, Mass. Pictured on that occasion are, left to right, Father A. F. McDonald, local priest chaplain to receive the Purple Heart decoration; Chaplain H. C. Wood, of the Department of the Army (Station); Mrs. Elizabeth Schmitt, of St. Lucas, Ill., widow of Chaplain Schmitt and agent of the vessel and Captain Roy Lewis of the First Naval District. (U.S.N.A.)

Corning Weddings

Dygart - Dalton
Mrs. Edward F. Dalton, 207 Walnut St., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice Jean Dalton, to Pvt. Albert Ellsworth Dygart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dygart, 48 E. Willam St., which took place Tuesday, June 1, at 7 P. M. at the Army Chapel, Atlantic City, N. J. The Rev. Father Radley performed the ceremony.

A supper was served for 75 guests at the Corn-Concomer following the ceremony.

Mrs. Dygart, a graduate of Corning Free Academy, is employed with the New York Telephone Company. She has returned to Corning and will reside here for the present. Pvt. Dygart, who attended Northside School, entered the service in January of this year.

Shinners - Costerline
CORNING—The marriage of Miss Ruth M. Costerline, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Costerline, Elm St., South Corning, and Bernard Shinners, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shinners, Sr., 291 W. Second St., took place Saturday at 11 A. M. at St. Mary's Rectory. The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor, performed the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Bernice L. Clark of South Corning and James Schroeder of Corning.

A wedding breakfast was served in the bridal party at the Baron Steuben Hotel with a reception

Corning Youth Answer Call To Nation's Service

CORNING—Miss Louise Ann Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lynch, 222 Denton Ferry, reported for duty with the WAVES at Hunter College, New York City on Tuesday, June 15. Miss Lynch is the first Corning County girl to be accepted by the WAVES whose application originated in the Elmira recruiting office.

Miss Lynch is a graduate of St. Patrick's Parochial School, Corning Free Academy and Corning Business School. Prior to entering the service she was employed in the Post Department of the Brook Division of Corning Glass Works.

Ben Yorio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Yorio, 135 W. Erie Ave., entered the U. S. Navy Training Base at Sampson recently. He is the fourth son of the Pasquales to be serving in the armed forces.

Following for about 70 guests at the home of the bride's parents. Later Mr. and Mrs. Shinners left for a wedding trip by train.

A graduate of South Corning School and Northside High School, Mrs. Shinners is now employed in the shipping office of the Corning Glass Works. Mr. Shinners is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy. He is also an employee of the Glass Works.

The other wedding was Paul Yorio, a member of the "Barnard" Unit of the Navy, Station 1000, and recipient of a Purple Heart. Paul Yorio will be away in France, only when he returns will be a member of the National Guard and serve at Fort Bragg, N. C. until he receives a medical discharge.

T. William Toney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Toney, 241 W. First St., was recently assigned to a second lieutenant in the Army Administration School, Ft. Belvoir, W. D.

L. Toney, a graduate of Corning Free Academy and Holy Name University, entered the service in September, 1942, and was stationed for a time at Camp Grant, Ill. Prior to his induction he was employed in the office of the Sales and Marketing Division of Corning Glass Works.

Lawrence J. Cobb, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb of Corning, has been advanced to rank first private first class in command. He has been stationed at Key Field, Miss., but was recently transferred to Greenfield, S. C.

Cpl. Cobb, a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy, entered the service in December, 1942.