ST. GERARD
THE PATRON OF MOTHERS
By Rev. Thomas K. Becka, C.S.B.

The countless wonders performed through the intercession of St. Gerard in behalf of suffering humanity have inspired upon the confessor of this servile ministry a grave sense of duty to him and to the Catholic public at large.

Will mothers-to-be be inspired to St. Gerard for the future by his most great and constant by the benefits of his life and the miracles wrought through his intercession. We owe it to our Catholic people that they may draw inspiration from the example of his saintliness and also profit by the power of his intercession in heaven.

There are many men and women throughout the world who would welcome information about this saintly lay-brother, which to a great extent has been withheld from them. They would appreciate the opportunity to utilize his marvelous influence with God, and to take advantage of it for heavenly relief in the many trials in daily life. Devotion to St. Gerard would appeal in a forceful way especially to wives in the discharge of their sacred duties of motherhood. St. Gerard is in very truth, the "Mother's Saint."

Realizing the great importance of divine aid in the bearing and care of children, the protection of God over them and the mother during that trying period, and conscious of the vicious propaganda aimed to belittle, thwart and condemn the blessed privilege of motherhood, we confidently hope through the intercession of St. Gerard to give new inspiration and courage to expectant mothers and by his help to ease for them, the difficult moments of their confinement.

FOR MANY YEARS

We are not advocating any new form of devotion nor establishing any public novena. Devotion to St. Gerard has been in full vogue for many years and novenas to him have been mostly in the privacy of the human heart and within the precincts of the home. We do want you to realize the effective power and willingness of St. Gerard to help you. We want you to enjoy your share of his influence with God.

We recommend that you formulate some manner of continuous devotion to St. Gerard which you can conveniently and consistently follow at home. Nine Hail Marys for nine consecutive days, accompanied by a special prayer to St. Gerard and the reception of the sacraments would constitute an excellent novena. Other forms of devotions will suggest themselves to you and will have real value. After all it is the pleading, prayerful petition of your own heart that carries weight and effectively reaches the heart of God and His Saints.

If you desire to follow an established devotion or novena we shall gladly supply you gratis with an approved form. The little booklet of prayers to St. Gerard can be yours for the asking and no strings attached. Send your name and address to St. Gerard's Sanctuary, 1748 Beechwood Blvd., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Upon receipt of your request a booklet of prayers and devotions to St. Gerard will be sent you immediately.

We ask one thing of you in return. Should you receive any noteworthy or special favor or blessing through the intercession of St. Gerard, will you kindly write us an account of it. We will appreciate this information and pass it on to others that they too may be encouraged to practice continued devotion to St. Gerard.

Easy Does It

In the matter of speed cast is east and west is west most certainly. However, as Father Huengsborg, S.V.D., reminds us time in China "has a tempo that is different from that in the busy states. The Chinese say: 'Do not fear to go slowly but only to stand still.' This principle applies to all work. When by far the greater part of all labor must be performed by human strength, it is futile to do more than the human body can accomplish; futile to rush things or to do too much."

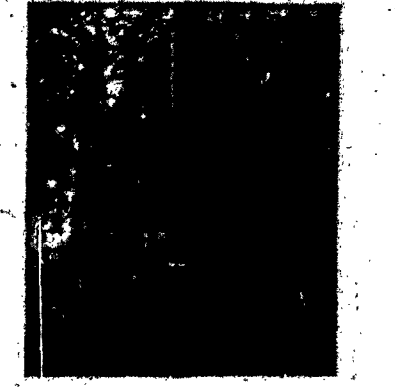

It is this attitude which perhaps offers the explanation for the "unique ability of these people to survive catastrophes of nature and the destruction of wars."—The New World (Chicago), 1942.

Holy Father Gives Books To Peru Library

LIMA — His Holiness Pope Pius XII has decided to make a substantial present of books to the National Library of Peru which some time ago was destroyed by fire. His Excellency the Most Rev. Fernando Costa, Papal Nuncio to Peru, has informed the Peruvian Minister of Public Education.

The Nuncio added that "this gift evidences once more the wide interest in the promotion of culture which has ever been an attribute of the Holy Father."
