SON SAFE IN AFRICA, ARCHBISHOP SPELLMAN INFORMS AUBURN MOTHER

AUBURN—Mrs. Michael J. Lombardo, who former Elizabeth Hammersbach, of 293 State Street, received a letter from Rev. Francis X. Shea, secretary to Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York advising her that her husband Pfc. Michael J. Lombardo is stationed with the U. S. Air Force Engineers in Africa in excellent health.

Archbishop Spellman who is still on tour overseas sent a wire to his secretary who wrote the good news to Mrs. Lombardo. The Archbishop also sent his blessing.

Lombardo who has been in the service for 14 months has been overseas for the past six months. He was graduated from East High School in 1937.

Commend Veteran in Africa As Instructor

AUBURN—Mr. and Mrs. Curcio Felenda of 164 Clark Street, have received word from their son, Pfc. Emmanuel J. Felenda, now somewhere in North Africa. He enclosed a copy of a commendation awarded him for his "loyal and diligent work... as assistant instructor in the Infantry Weapons School for French Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, conducted in French Morocco, 14-16 December 1943." The commendation also says that "any mission accomplished in these classes was due, in no small degree to the intense interest and tireless efforts of Pfc. Felenda." Pfc. Felenda was a member of the American combat team which landed near Casablanca under heavy fire in November 14, 1942.
