BUCK-DELANEY WEDDING

BY MARY C. BURNAN
OWNED—The wedding of Miss Alice Geraldine Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney, to Private Fleet Class Wilfred Frederick Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Buck, recently took place in St. John's Church in Newburg, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alexander Hira in the presence of the members of the immediate families and a large number of interested friends of the couple.

The maid of honor was Miss Phoebe Buck, a sister of the bridegroom and the bridesmaids were the Misses Suzanne and Mary Ruth Delaney, sisters of the bride. Music for the wedding was furnished by Mrs. Donald Zimmer, the church organist and by Miss Jeanne Movel and Miss Mary Ruth Delaney who sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Frances Delaney, a sister of the bride, was flower girl and Charlen

Buck, a brother of the bridegroom was the ring bearer. James Robert Delaney, a brother of the bride, was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride following the ceremony for immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. The couple left on a short wedding trip and later Fle Buck and Mrs. Buck will reside in Newburgh, near which city he is stationed.

SERVICE ROLL NAMES
 Several additional names will be added to the honor roll of St. Patrick's Parish for the boys who have entered the services of their country. Among the boys who have joined the Navy within the past few weeks are Paul McTumney, Francis Ward, Gerard Laffin. These boys, who were graduated from the Owego Free Academy last month are now at the Naval Training Station at Hampton.

INFORMATION, PLEASE!
 There will come a day when no Catholic woman in the United States, nor any well-informed Catholic woman abroad, need ask the question: "What is the National Catholic School of Social Service?"

That day has not yet come. In the meantime, we Catholic women of the U. S. are going to be ready to answer that question of our Fathers, our Relatives, our Friends, our Club Members, our Business Associates. We are going to be ready with the answer because we are the MALES FORCE of a great Catholic and patriotic campaign to secure ONE MILLION WAR SAVINGS STAMPS, of the 25 cent denomination, for the NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SERVICE.

The general campaign is being held from July 1 to Aug. 15. The campaign is sponsored by the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN. Like every endeavor of the N.C.C.W. the campaign is under the patronage of "Our Lady of Good Counsel," Honored "Our Lady" by participating in the campaign.

The PURPOSE of the campaign is to rid the NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SERVICE of a debt of $150,000 and to provide for its expansion to meet the great need for trained Catholic social service workers in war relief and rehabilitation work in this country and abroad.

Our Diocesan War Stamp Campaign is well under way. At a meeting of representatives of affiliated organizations held at Columbus Civic Center on Monday, July 11, Sister M. Paulette, an alumna of the Service School gave an enlightening and inspiring talk. We are asking you, and you and you, to "buy a stamp and give a stamp" to the N.C.S.S.

The honor of being the first to purchase $15.00 bonds for the school goes to Mrs. Charles W. Mayne, Miss Minnie McCall and Mrs. Charles Ward.

The local Drive is under the leadership of Mrs. Michael H. Koogh, Rochester Deanery President.

Mrs. Frank Cyrill will be at the Catholic Evidence Library, every Friday afternoon during the Drive from 3 to 6, to give out books, receive returns and answer questions.

These are a few of the facts about the N.C.S.S.

The National Catholic School of Social Service is a professional school of social work for young women who are graduates of recognized colleges.

The National Catholic School of Social Service is a member school of the American Association of Schools of Social Work.

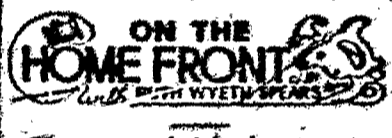

The National Catholic School of Social Service is an AFFILIATED SCHOOL OF THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA. Graduates of N.C.S.S. receive their degrees from The Catholic University.

The National Catholic School of Social Service has a Faculty of 36 Professors and Instructors. It has a capacity of 50 full-time students.

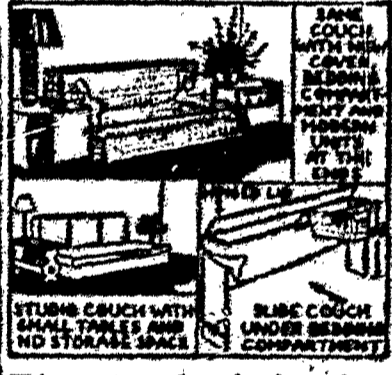

A characteristic feature of the National Catholic School of Social Service is that it is SUPPORTED AND MAINTAINED BY THE CATHOLIC WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES. The National Council of Catholic Women was designated by the Bishops of the U. S. in 1921 as the SPONSOR of the School.

Another characteristic feature of the N.C.S.S. is that it is a RESIDENT SCHOOL, the only resident school of social work for women in the United States. The training given at the School is more than intellectual training. It is spiritual training. The soul of the School is the Chapel where every morning the students assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Miss Mary Newsome, President of the Elmira Deanery and chairman of the Drive in that Deanery, reports progress. Who will be next?

The upper sketch shows a combination living and bedroom brought up to date with every inch of space used. The cushions (lower left) were replaced with a box-like compartment for bedding.

This was made of plywood as shown at the lower right. It was padded across the front and ends with cotton batting, and covered with the couch material tacked in place through a latex strip. Unpainted book cases were bought to go at the ends and the lid of the bedding compartment was painted to match the book cases.

NOTE: Longer and longer grows the list that "money won't buy." But bright ideas for using the things you already have are not as the that list. The one shown here is from BOOK 10 of the series of homemaking booklets prepared for readers. BOOK 10 also contains more than thirty other things to make from things on hand and available materials. Booklets are 10c each plus 5c each to cover mailing costs. Address: Mrs. Sperry, Drawer 133, Bedford Hills, New York, (Copyright).

Decorates Kansan

Noodin, Kans.—Word of the awarding of the Distinguished Flying Cross to Sgt. Carl A. Grabner, crew chief on a bomber, has been received by his parents here, in a letter from Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney, commander of the air forces in the Pacific area. The award is made for extraordinary achievement in more than 50 flight missions. General Kenney tells Sergeant Grabner's parents how proud he is to have "young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness fighting our country's battle against the aggressor nations."

New Rules on Ringing Of Church Bells in Western Germany

FRIEDRICH, Switzerland.—Frequent air raids over western Germany by American and British planes have resulted in new regulations regarding the ringing of church bells being adopted by Nazi authorities, according to a report received here by KIPA, Catholic International Press Agency.

The rules provide that bells must remain silent during a raid, from 8 p. m. to 5 a. m., and during the course of any speech made by Adolf Hitler. Bells are allowed to be rung before services on Sundays and Holy days for three minutes in cities and six minutes in rural sections, and for one-minute intervals for the traditional Angelus in the morning and evening and for three minutes on such occasions as Baptisms, weddings, funerals and memorial services.

DIES IN IRELAND
 Mrs. John Hogan has received word of the death of her brother, John McNamee in Ireland, June 10.

MRS. GEARY DIES
 Funeral services for Mrs. Gertrude Hamm Geary were held Monday morning. Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. E. J. Lyons, pastor, assisted by Rev. James E. Keenan and Rev. John G. Gough of Sayre. Burial was in St. James Cemetery. A Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated in the church of the Epiphany in Sayre, Tuesday morning, for Mrs. Geary. Father Gough spoke very highly of Mrs. Geary's work in that Church Sunday.

Mrs. Geary, 60, of 428 Cayuga Ave., Waverly, widow of the late James J. Geary died July 9, 1943, at the Robert Packer Hospital after an illness of several weeks. She was organist at the Sayre Church of the Epiphany for 43 years and was well-known in the Valley as a musician. Mrs. Geary was born in Waverly, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hamm but moved to Sayre as a child. She has lived in Waverly for the past 20 years, where she was a member of St. James Church. Survivors include two sons, J. Francis of Millerton, N. Y., and Robert at home; one daughter, Margaret, at home; two sisters, Mrs. George W. Rabey of Knickerbocker and Mrs. Mary L. Moynihan of Sayre; and three brothers, John Hamm of Waverly, Joseph Hamm of Union, N. Y., and Charles Hamm of Sayre.

MRS. JULIA HAAS
 Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Haas were held at the Haas family home, 4 Athens St., Waverly, July 10, and in St. James Church of Waverly. Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Edward J. Lyons, pastor of the church. Rev. James E. Keenan was deacon and Rev. Joseph Hogan was sub-deacon. Burial was in St. James cemetery, Waverly, with Father Hogan officiating at the grave.

Bearers were Francis Line, Wm. Line, Lloyd Hedges, Salvatore Paper, Edward Kimball and Leo Kane.

Mrs. Haas, a resident of Waverly for more than 40 years, died in the Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre July 8, 1943.

Born in Athens Township, she was the wife of Edward Haas, of Sayre, who died several years ago. Prior to his death the couple resided in Wilkes-Barre for a short time.

Well known in Waverly, Mrs. Haas was a member of St. James Church at Waverly. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Corey of Sayre; two sons, Daniel J. Haas of Waverly and John E. Haas of Wilkes-Barre; a grandson, Sgt. Joseph F. Haas, U. S. Army, stationed at Avon Park, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Michael J. Downes of 133 Providence St., Waverly, and several nieces and nephews.
