

Daughters of Isabella Cancel 1943 Convention

NEW HAVEN—The National Board of Directors of the National Circle, Daughters of Isabella, acting under the advisement of the Office of Defense Transportation, has cancelled the organization's 1943 national convention. Action was taken by the Daughters of Isabella, it was said, because of the acute transportation problem and because it was felt that the war-time needs of the nation must come first.

Costa Rica President Lauds Archbishop's Stand On Vanguardia

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (NC)—Attitude of the Most Rev. Victor Sanabria, Archbishop of San Jose, regarding the dissolution of the Communist Party in Costa Rica and the establishment of the new Vanguardia Popular party was described as "courageous" and meriting the appreciation and gratitude of his fellow-citizens," by President Rafael A. Calderon Guardia in a press conference here.

"The replacing of the Communist Party by Vanguardia Popular," the President said, "constitutes an event of the greatest importance. By a happy coincidence, the dissolution of the Communist Party has facilitated a transformation which thousands of Costa Ricans desired. For the welfare of Costa Rica, all delegates of the extinct Communist Party have united in affirming support for a realistic and patriotic program."

This program, the President added, upholds postulates which are in keeping with "the principles of the Catholic Church." "I wish publicly to recognize that in the attitude assumed by His Excellency the Archbishop and by Senor Mora Valverde (head of Vanguardia Popular) the virtue of sincerity was luminant," President Calderon Guardia said.

The Archbishop, he added, is "above the ancient winds that fan politics kindled for personal ambition" and was "faithful to his duties as Archbishop and also as a citizen," when he approved the dissolution of the Communist Party and did not condemn "a program formulated with positive patriotic orientation."

"Inspired by his Christian sentiments and faithful to his creed, with integrity and dignity," the Chief Executive said, the Archbishop has "concretely set before Catholic consciences powerful reasons why the defunct Communist Party should not be confused with Vanguardia Popular, the orientation of which is compatible with the teachings and aspirations of the Catholic Religion."

Boys Town Hero

Winley E. Inggard, Ph. M. 1/6, 1941 Boys Town high school graduate, and the best of Father Francis' boys to be decorated, was a visitor of Boys Town on route to the Great Lakes hospital for medical treatment. Inggard received the Silver Star for bravery last September 16 when he faced the fire of Japanese snipers to treat wounded Marines on Guadalcanal. While on Guadalcanal he contracted malaria. Bearers were Thomas L. Carey, John E. Carey, James McGrath, Stephen McGrath, Lawrence Walder and Edward Latson.

Interment was in the family plot at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was imparted by the Rev. John M. Slingerland assisted by the Rev. John Healy.

Mr. McGrath is survived by his wife and seven daughters, Mrs. William J. Powers, Sr., M. Blanche, Sister Rita Marie, Sister Agnes Clara, of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph; Mrs. Walter F. Kreiger, Mrs. Felicia Chagnon, Mrs. Louis Weider and nine grandchildren.

Sports Figure Dies

Los Angeles—John J. Mulhern, widely known on the Pacific Coast as a former cheer leader at Loyola University in this city, is reported to have lost his life while on action with the Navy in the North Africa theater of operations. It is said he died as the result of an automobile accident while engaged in delivering supplies.

Discuss Peace Plans

San Francisco—A public program on "A Christian Program for World Peace" is being sponsored in San Francisco by the St. Thomas More Society and the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Catholic Philosophical Association.
