LONDON (NC) — Knights of St. Columbs. — Catholic fraternal organization in Great Britain inspired by the Knights of Columbus — now have 335 councils, Supreme Knight W. J. Loughrey reports. Five of these councils are in the Channel Islands, which are occupied by the Germans, and one is in Malta.

SUMMER FAIR FRIDAY EVE

With the final reports of the committees in, all details for the annual Summer Parish Fair are complete. The committee in charge is confident that the Fair will be even a greater success than ever before despite the many curtailments arising from war conditions.

The Parish Fair this year will be held on Friday (tomorrow) evening, August 13, in the Parish Hall. Even the gas rationing should not hinder the attendance because the five bus lines with stops in front of the hall make it most convenient to come and enjoy this annual parish event.

The preliminary sale of tickets will be completed at this Fair. Awards will be made during the evening's program. All returns should be made not later than Friday evening at the special booth in the hall.

A number of new and novel attractions are being planned. In addition to the Owl Cake and Chuckle games there will be a Baked Goods Booth, a Novelty Grab and a Merchandise Booth. Besides the usual Refreshment Booth, ice cream and cake and coffee will be served in a Tea Room.

John Hodgen is serving as Chairman and he is being assisted by Miss Claudia O'Bourne. Miss Jean Kelly is in charge of the Refreshment Booth; the Tea Room by Mrs. Leo Fleming; Chuckles Game by John Kost, Jr.; Owl Cake Game by John Carney; Baseball Game by Peter Taylor; Victory Grab by Mrs. Philip Leary; Merchandise Booth by Miss Loretta Haffey; Baked Goods by Mrs. John Kost, Sr.; and the Change Booth by Fred Caldwell.

Donations to the Baked Goods and Victory Grab Booths will be gratefully received at the rectory any time before Friday afternoon.

SCHOOL COLLECTION

Parishioners are asked to remember that this Sunday, August 15, is School Collection Sunday.

THIRD LOYALTY SUNDAY

As announced before our parishioners have been asked to help meet the extra expense of the improvements and repairs made over the past few months in our church, school, hall, convent and rectory by increasing their regular Sunday offering. This appeal for these increased offerings will continue for the next seven Sundays. Such response to our appeal will not only help to meet this great expense but will also give evidence of our people's interest in their parish and their approval of the continued upkeep of the church property. No special envelopes are needed for this appeal. Just add whatever extra amount you wish to your regular Sunday offering for these ten Loyalty Sundays. Last Sunday approximately $285 was realized from these added offerings.

MERCHANDISE CLUB

Sunday, August 22, closes this Summer Merchandise Club, sponsored by the Parish Rosary Society. Due to war conditions the shipment of all goods is not complete as yet. The arrival of the club blankets will be announced as soon as they are received. The bedspreads, lace cloths and comforters are in our hands and will be given out on a day to be announced after Sunday, August 22.

Mrs. Frank Hill of East Rochester is the Club Member for this week.

PEWRENT FOR AUGUST DUE

Again we remind our people that the August Quarter Pewrent is now due. We would appreciate it if this matter would be taken care of as soon as possible. Also may we urge those who have now pew-sitting to join the loyal supporters of our parish by renting a sitting this Sunday. Come in after Mass on Sunday and see one of the priests. Your pew-sitting will identify you as a loyal and definite member of this parish.

Opens Radio Station

Lisbon — Catholic Action in Portugal has established a new radio station called Radio Renascenca which is to be maintained and directed by a Catholic Radio organization. The organization is headed by the Rev. Lopez da Cruz and already has over 4,000 paying members. Its aim is to organize all Catholics of Portugal and her colonies after the example of the Catholic Radio organizations of the Netherlands, which played such a prominent part in cultural life of Holland until their suppression by the Nazis.

Prelates Aid Russian War Prisoners

VATICAN CITY (NC) — His Excellency the Most Rev. Andrea Cassulo, Papal Nuncio to Rumania, paid a visit to Russian prisoners of war in camps and hospitals in the Rumania and Odessa regions, taking them spiritual consolation and providing all with a special Easter dinner, according to the latest issue of Osservatore, official organ of the Vatican Information Office.

The publication also states that in Finland, the Most Rev. William Cobben, Vicar Apostolic of Finland, paid a visit to Russian prisoners of war in the name of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, addressing them and distributing gifts, including food and clothing. He also obtained permission for priests to make periodic visits to the Catholics among the prisoners.
