Newman Club at Clemson Presents Honor Society Keys

CLEMSON, S. C.—At the annual banquet of the Newman Club at Clemson College, keys of the Henry Newman Honorary Society were awarded George LaBrace, of Charleston, an alumnus of Clemson, and Decl Barbot, of Florence, a senior at the college. The keys were given in recognition of outstanding service to the Newman Club Federation, both on local and national scale.

Each year the Newman Club at Clemson awards a key to some member of the Clemson community who has in some particular way shown an interest in student activities and furthered them by cooperation and personal interest.

This year the club selected Claude Klutts, local restaurant owner, to be the recipient of the award, and the key was presented to him at the banquet.

Father Christopher Barry, of Greenville, was the principal speaker at the banquet, which was prepared by the Catholic Women's Club of St. Andrew's parish here, and served by the Junior Legion of Mary of St. Francis parish, in W. Hall.
