John F. Manning, Waycross,
Appointed District Deputy for
First Georgia District K. of C.

SAVANNAH, Ga.—State Deputy John M. Brennan, of Georgia State Council, Knights of Columbus, has announced the appointment of John F. Manning, of Waycross, as District Deputy of the First Georgia District, which includes Savannah Council, No. 631, and Henry Thomas Ross Council, No. 1929, Brunswick.

The appointment of Mr. Manning as District Deputy fills a vacancy caused by the recent death of James E. Foster, also of Waycross. Charles C. Thomas, of Augusta, continues as District Deputy with jurisdiction over Atlanta Council, No. 626, and Patrick Walsh Council, No. 677, in Augusta; Robert J. Blinn, of Macon, continues as District Deputy with jurisdiction over Macon Council, No. 925, and Bishop Gross Council, No. 1019, Columbus.

JACK MANNING
District Deputy who is now

Mr. Manning, the newly appointed District Deputy, was born in Truman, Miss., December 14, 1915. He moved to Chicago in 1918 and attended St. Francis de Paula parochial school and Mount Carmel High School. Later, he received his B. S. degree in Pharmacy from the University of Illinois.

He was married in 1939 to Miss Patricia Anderson of Chicago, and they have five children, all boys, three of whom attend St. Joseph's School in Waycross.

Mr. Manning moved to Florida in 1947, and since December of that year has made his home in Waycross, where he represents W. H. Lilley and Company, of Indianapolis.

He has been a member of Henry Thomas Ross Council, in Brunswick, for two or three years, and served as inside guard of the council last year. A member of the Columbus Club, in Waycross, he is vice-president of that K. of C. group. He served as warden to the
