Edward B. Parker
 Agave Heads K. of C.
 Council in Brunswick

GRAND KNIGHT PARKER
 BRUNSWICK, Ga. — Edward B. Parker has been elected grand knight of Henry Thomas Ross Council, Knights of Columbus, to succeed H. M. Manning, who will now hold the office of deputy grand knight.

Other officers of the council are V. L. Stanton, chancellor; Joseph Cruz, treasurer; Wright Parker, recording secretary; R. J. Bernard, advocate; Joseph L. Owens, warden; Jack Manning, inside guard; G. B. Sylvia, outside guard; A. M. Ross, Frank Tansone, Manuel Bos, trustees.

Father John T. Mercer, S. M., pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, is chaplain of the council, and Father Joseph Kane, S. M., assistant pastor, has been appointed lecturer of the council. John Siler continues as financial secretary, another appointive office.

Mr. Parker, who served as a trustee of Henry Thomas Ross Council last year, has previously headed the council as grand knight, having been named in March, 1953, to fill the unexpired term of Grand Knight Edward Lott who had resigned. Mr. Parker was then elected to serve the council as grand knight for a full year's term. He has also been state warden of Georgia State Council, K. of C.
