Corning Youth Answer Call To Nation's Service

CORNING — Edward L. Hickey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hickey of Cedar Ave., has been presented from parents first class in service in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Cory Hickey, a member of the Marine for over two years, has been stationed somewhere in the Pacific for the past year.

Mr. John Dilligale, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dilligale, 17 E. Erie Ave., has been graduated from the advanced mechanics school in the Army Air Force Training Command at Tusomeg Johnson Field, N. C. Prior to entering the service in December, 1942, Mr. Dilligale was employed at Corning Glass Works.

Louis Dilligale, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Dilligale is a member of the U. S. Coast Guard.

For the second time within the past few months Mr. and Mrs. Ed-ward C. Bowers, 241 Walnut St., have been advised of the promotion of their son, Edwin Bowers, Jr., in the U. S. Navy. About three months ago Mr. and Mrs. Bowers were informed that Edwin had achieved the rank of Chief Pharmacist Mate. A few days ago he told them that he is now rated as Pharmacist, United States Navy.

Pharmacist Bowers is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy. He served a four year enlistment in the Navy, which terminated in October, 1942. Immediately after the attack on Pearl Harbor the young man was enlisted and since then has been on duty in California and the Pacific.

Paul T. Kovin, son of Leo Kovin, 117 W. Fifth St., and the late Mrs. Kovin, who is stationed at Miami Beach, Fla., has been promoted from the rank of private first class to corporal. Corp. Kovin was attached to St. Mary's School and Corning Free Academy, was employed at Corning Glass Works previous to entering the service in July, 1942.

Thomas Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Crowley of Corning, N. J., formerly of Corning, is now stationed at Nashville, Tenn., in an aviation unit with the Army Air Corps.

A graduate of Corning Free Academy in the class of 1942, Capt. Crowley enlisted in the service in February of this year. After receiving his basic training at Atlantic City, N. J., he was transferred to Massachusetts State College at Amherst, Mass., where he recently completed the first phase of his aviation training.

Donald Farrell, son of Patrick and Mrs. Harriet Farrell, 124 Walnut Ave., now stationed at Melville, N. L., with the U. S. Navy, has been promoted to the rank of carpenter's mate third class. He received his "boot" training at Sampson Naval Station.

Francis E. Wenderlich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wenderlich, 148 W. Second St., has been promoted to a first lieutenant according to word received by his wife, Lt. Wenderlich, a member of St. Mary's Parish, left Corning with the 14th Medical Regiment in February, 1941. Stationed for a time at Fort Bragg, N. C., he was later transferred to Camp Searby, Tex., where he received his commission as second lieutenant last October after attending Officers' Training School.

Lt. Wenderlich served for a time at Madisson Barracks and about six months ago was sent to North Africa where he is now stationed. Before entering the service he was employed at Corning Glass Works.

Martin Wahl's Funeral Mass Offered By Son

Funeral services for Martin Wahl, 473 Reckingham St., father of a pilot and a nun and exemplary Catholic layman, were held Monday, August 9, at the home and at St. Boniface Church.

Mr. Wahl, 78, died Friday, August 6, 1943.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by his son, the Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church, assisted by Chaplain Donald Murphy, U. S. Army, ex-deacon and the Rev. Frank Taylor, subdeacon. The Rev. Bernard V. Kuchman was master of ceremonies; the Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, theorist; the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel and the Rev. Frank Valukovich, acolytes.

The final blessing was pronounced by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Keane, Bishop of Rochester.

Present also at the Mass were: the Rt. Rev. Mgr. John F. Boppel, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Joseph S. Cameron and the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Joseph E. Grady.

Burial was in the family lot at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final Massing was given by Father Wahl.

Mr. Wahl was a member of the Reory Society, St. Herman's Society and St. Boniface Commandery, Knights of St. John. A member of the Chevaliers, Fourth Degree, Knights of St. John, he had a long record of service with the knights and served for many years on the Regimental staff.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Barbara Wahl; four sons, Father Raymond J. Wahl, M. Martin Wahl, Herbert F. Wahl and Leonard Robert J. Wahl; and four daughters, Sister M. Marlene Marie of Nazareth Academy; Mrs. Ralph Kallwagen, Marcelle and Alma C. Wahl.

Nothing pays smaller dividends than a capacious spirit.—Proverb.

Prelates Aid Russian War Prisoners

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — His Holiness the Most Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, has authorized the Holy See to contribute to the relief of Russian war prisoners in the Caucasus region, taking them to the Mediterranean and providing all with a special Russian passport, according to the latest issue of the Holy See's official organ, the Vatican Information Office.

The publication also stated that in October, the Most Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, authorized the Holy See to contribute to the relief of Russian war prisoners in the Caucasus region, taking them to the Mediterranean and providing all with a special Russian passport, according to the latest issue of the Holy See's official organ, the Vatican Information Office.
