Northern and Southern Sympathy

It is true that not enough white leaders champion the Negro or earnestly work for his betterment. Against the same statement can be made with equal truth as far as the mass workers in concerned. If President Roosevelt deserves God's blessing for one thing, it is certainly for the interest he has shown and the legislation he has had enacted for the promotion of the Negro in civil employ. His "unselfish" acting of many times with the right targets in furnishing public work and making plans for human habitation, and in building decent houses for the poorest of our white and Negro
