Order Of The Alhambra Lists 2-Day Business Session In New York

A wartime conference of members of the Order of the Alhambra will have delegates from Rochester's Mass. Caravan, in New York City, next week when the 20th Biennial convention of the organization will be held at Pennsylvania Hotel, August 25 and 26.

Rochester's delegates will include Grand Commander Norman A. O'Brien, Deputy Supreme Commander Frank M. Romano, Grand Chamberlain William J. Worrner and Myrtle of the Executive Clarence M. Laffan.

The original convention was scheduled for Philadelphia but was called off due to the war. The meeting in New York will be continued to business.

A notice sent to the members this week with the signatures of Supreme Commander Thomas J. Quinn and Supreme Scribe G. Alfred Peters, Jr. states:

"This Twentieth Biennial Convention will be unlike any Convention Alhambra has ever seen, and we hope, such as it will never see again. No zells, no fireworks, no entertainment, no tips - only business and the good fellowship that always prevails when Alhambra gets together. That's the result of war.

Existence Of Mexico Tied To Catholic Faith

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — "The existence of Mexico is bound to the Catholic Faith" was the theme of the assembly of the Catholic Association of Mexican Youth here on Saturday evening. The Most Rev. Luis M. Martinez, Archbishop of Mexico, in addressing the meeting said: "The Church numbers among Catholic youths the best, the most openly and most decided patriots in this hour of unrest, whether they be in the shops, the schools, the fields or in the ranks of the conscripts."

One point that was emphasized in discussion of the general theme was that the Catholic youth of Mexico be neither cowardly nor inert, and it is ready and willing to collaborate whenever and wherever it is called. "A young conscript," it was pointed out, "wherever he goes will find the outstretched hand of brotherhood among the Catholic youth, and not the menacingly clenched fist."
