WACS Set Graduation Mass

PORT JEFFERSON, N. Y. — An interesting tradition among Catholic girls is the graduating Mass at the Officers' Candidates School of the Women's Army Corps here, since its light in connection with a visit which the Advisory Council to the Women's Interstate Section of the War Department just paid to the Port.

In each succeeding year culled up by the graduation, and administered, in the WACS, it was said, it is customary for the Catholic girls to have a Mass offered up on the Sunday before graduation, to attend the Mass in a body, and to decorate the altar themselves for this occasion.

Golden Jubilee

Quebec — The first three French Canadian members of the Brothers of Christian Instruction to reach the 50th anniversary of their profession were honored at Le-protic. They were Brother Denbelle, Assistant General, and Brothers Constant-Jules and De-Sac-Marie.

On Guard!

It's a funny thing, Joe, but we wonder why it is that you discovered this Second Front line not when the tanks were falling on London but when they were falling on Moscow and Stalingrad!

Retreat ourselves, Joe, let me tell you this: Both the Americans and the British know that Soviet Russia is not in this war because they think it is a war for liberty.

Soviet Russia is in this war because it was attacked by Germany, and the Red armies will continue to fight with the United States and Britain only so long as you believe it to be in the interest of Soviet Russia.

Now, this Second Front is a great idea. The British and ourselves are all for it. But really, Joe, the way that you cry for a Second Front makes us wonder what is wrong with you. Joe, haven't you heard? Didn't your friend Tom tell you? WE HAVE A SECOND FRONT IN THE FAR EAST! Right now both the British and ourselves have a lot of unfinished business in a place called Japan. It's funny that you didn't hear how Douglas and his crew visited Tokyo. Ask your Japanese Ambassador to tell you about Guadalcanal, Wake Island and Manila.

As a matter of fact, Joe, the Second Front doesn't mean much to us now. Why, we look back after we took over six or seven fronts. Right now the Tanks are posted all over the world. The British and American fleets are patrolling the Seven Seas. Ask Hitler what happened to his submarine wolf packs. Did you ever hear about a chap called Rommel, Joe? Or about such places as Tunisia and Elmer? Who do you think is chasing the Nazis out of Sicily? Remember too, Joe, those dark days when Hitler was before Moscow, how our merchant marine braved the perilous northern route to Murmansk, how they found the Luftwaffe practically on your front porch, and how they got through somehow with guns, planes, tanks and food for Moscow!

And Joe, what do you think the British and American flyers are doing in their round-the-clock trips over Germany and occupied Europe? They're not stunt flying, Joe, and you know it!

Now, Joe, let's forget all about this Second Front propaganda, and talk about the ONE FRONT. What difference does it make whether we shoot Nazis in Sicily or in the Kharkov sector? As long as we shoot them, why should you worry where we bury them?

Not the Second Front in Europe but the ONE FRONT of spiritual unity between America, Britain and Russia is the big issue. You know, Joe, you have us worried. We believe in the FREEDOM OF SPEECH and the FREEDOM OF RELIGION. But folks don't speak in Moscow, Joe, unless you let them. Your Soviet Constitution doesn't allow religion to be taught in Russia. Some times, Joe, you remind me a lot of your ex-chain Hitler.

Come on, Joe, let's establish the ONE FRONT against tyranny and oppression not just in Berlin but also in Moscow. We would still like to see you over here. We would treat you right, too. Ask Churchill; he's over here all the time.

By the way, what did you expect with your World's Fair Exhibit? Are you taking good care of Big Joe, your metallic doll? Why don't you bring Big Joe back to New York. We would be very glad to see him again. Sincerely Yours, One Frontier
