Suspected Already

This is the acid test. If the left-wing liberals demand governments in France, Russia, or Italy—or anywhere else—which will give the Church less than this amount of liberty far much as it has in the United States, let them say so frankly, then we shall be certain of what we already suspect, that they are not merely "anti-Clerical", but anti-Catholic and, indeed, anti-religious.—Dr. John A. Ryan in "Thunder on the Left, in America.

Defines Catholic Syndical Movement

SAN JOSE.—The Rev. Benjamin Nunez upon his return to Costa Rica after graduation from the School of Social Science, Catholic University of America, has been named director of the Catholic Syndical movement in this country.

In his first statement made after his selection for this important post by Ecclesiastical Authority, Father Nunez emphasized that the syndicalist movement must be inspired by principles of social justice, for the common good, and above partisan interests. The movement, he said, must be non-political and is for the purpose of the syndicalization of the elements of production—both workers and employes. Such a movement, he added, "responds adequately to the nature of the relations between Capital and Labor" and makes possible "within the democratic structure of our country" the existence of "a true economic democracy side by side with political democracy."

"Neither opportunism nor improvisation has been or will be found in the attitude of the Church," Father Nunez continued, "but rather continuity of a plan which is the child of serious reflection."

ST. BONIFACE PARISH

Feast of Holy Name of Mary

The feast of the Holy Name of Mary was celebrated very appropriately last Sunday evening when thirty-five boys were received into the Sodality. The beautiful ceremony of the reception was begun by a procession, forming a "Living Rosary" and as the Ave and Our Fathers were recited members took their candles to the shrine of Our Lady. After Benediction all members went to the hall where election of officers took place. George Hunting was chosen to lead the boys' sodality for the year. It is hoped that many more boys will join this fine organization and Father Baker invites prospective members to see him before the next meeting in October.

CLUB NEWS

A letter was sent to all members by President Bill Baker, announcing extensive plans for the fall season. Many improvements have been made in the club quarters, including renovation of the bowling alleys. Young men as well as the married men of the parish are invited to join the club. A great number of club members are in the service, furthermore, plans are completed to send gifts and letters to our service men. There will be many activities this season and considering the small amount assessed for dues, participants could not select a more profitable organization.

HOUSE CARD PARTIES

Many parishioners have already signed for the House Card Parties starting in October and ending in May for the benefit of the church. Four persons are only needed to fill a table. By calling the Rectory or Monroe 2115-J, parishioners will be given all necessary information. Our goal is to have one hundred tables, the games to be played in your homes once each month for eight months. Each player contributes 35c and $1.00 is returned to the church while the winner received a cash prize of $5.

RELIGIOUS CLASSES OPEN

Instructions on religion for the students of our public high schools will begin Monday afternoon, Sept. 20. These classes will be held in St. George's parish hall where all pupils are asked to assemble as soon as possible after their dismissal. The text chosen for this year's study is entitled "Saint Through the Ages."

All the boys and girls who attended classes at St. George's last year and have returned to the public high schools are expected to be present for this first session. Parents are asked to cooperate with the parish priests in seeing that their sons and daughters fulfill this important obligation.

"We invite especially the graduates from St. George's school who are attending a public high school for the first time." The release cards necessary for those to attend religious instruction classes may be obtained either at the rectory or from their school principal.

Consecrated Bishop

ANTIGONISH, N. S.—In the same church in which he had served as an altar boy, celebrated his first Mass, served as a curate and latterly as the rector, the Most Rev. John Roderick MacDonald, former chancellor of the Diocese of Antigonish, was consecrated Bishop of Peterborough, Ont., in St. Ninian's Cathedral here.

Would Repeal Ban On Land Ownership By Charities

MEXICO CITY. — Among the resolutions adopted at the First National Social Assistance Congress, held here this month, was one calling for amendment of that section of Article 27 of the Federal Constitution which prohibits private charitable institutions from possessing landed property. The resolution further recommended that such institutions be enabled to rely upon frank governmental support for their functioning.

Tribute To Humble Dominican Brother

LONDON.—Tribute to a humble Dominican Brother by a distinguished priest of the Order:

"He went through life quietly, desiring only to be overlooked and unthought of; he loved the lowest place."

Brother James (Algernon Squires), who served in several Dominican priories in this country, has died at the age of 69.

The law of work does seem utterly unfair—but there it is and nothing can change it: the higher the pay in enjoyment the worker gets out of it, the higher shall be his pay in money also. — Mark Twain.
