Diversified Program Listed For Catholic Women's Club

Mrs. Edward L. Zimmer, president of the Catholic Women's Club, has announced the following interesting and diversified program which has been submitted by Miss Lucille Burkhardt, program chairman, for this season:

Dr. John C. Armstrong, Professor of Political Science and History at St. Bonaventure College, will interpret current global events leading up to a discussion of peace aims in his subject, "Beyond Victory", on the evening of Oct. 18.

Miss Anne Campbell, of Detroit, author of many books of verse, and whose poetry is printed each day in many newspapers throughout the country will come to the clubhouse Nov. 15. She is widely known in newspaper and radio circles as "The Poet of the Home."

An event which all members look forward to each year will be held in January, when the annual dinner will be given in honor of the Spiritual Director of the Club, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney.

Father Hugh Haffey, Professor at Aquinas Institute and Chairman of the Christian Culture Lecture Series presented annually in Rochester will give members an appropriate talk following the meeting March 20.

Joseph J. Myler, Vice-President of Neisner Brothers and a well known leader in many civic groups, will review the life of Walt Whitman in a talk to be given the evening of April 17.

Serving on the Program Committee with Miss Burkhardt this season are the following members: Mrs. Edward L. Zimmer, president; Mrs. Frank S. Gottry, Mrs. A. E. Grate, Miss Helen Costello, Miss Ada Meng.

The membership campaign of the Catholic Women's Club which has been conducted by mail appeal to members until Sept. 15, will begin in earnest by the workers at a luncheon to be held at the Rochester Club, Friday, Sept. 24. Mrs. Ronald J. McDonald, membership chairman will direct the distribution of cards to the workers from various parishes in the city.

The guest speaker at the luncheon will be His Excellency Bishop Kearney.

Each year the members spend a day in retreat known as The Day of Recollection, always held on "The Feast of Christ, the King," which will be on Oct. 31, at the Sacred Heart Academy with Mrs. Louis A. Whalen in charge. The Rev. Benedict Ehmann will be the Retreat Master.

The Friday dessert bridge parties offer a social get together for members of the club and their friends. The first of the series will be held Friday, Oct. 8. Mrs. William J. Dempsey will be chairman of the hostesses.

Immaculate Parish Party Plans Announced

With a drastic change in policy which gives every indication of making the Immaculate benefit parties, "the most popular in the city of Rochester," the season opens, this coming Wednesday, Sept. 29 at 8:30 p. m.

The committee states: "So many improvements have been made in our large fireproof and beautifully redecorated auditorium that we are anxious for as many as possible to see for themselves the many improvements which we have made for your greater comfort and convenience.

"One of the highlights in the program of redecoration has been the installation of an entirely new and improved lighting system. This new lighting system is guaranteed to please everybody.

"So great is the number of surprises which we have planned for your greater enjoyment of these weekly benefit parties that we feel justified in referring to them as deluxe benefit parties. The admission is $1.10.

"The fact that the Immaculate auditorium is so conveniently located with 3 bus lines stopping at Edinburgh St., the Plymouth, the Jefferson and the Exchange is certain to appeal to all."

Freddie Grossman will "swing his magic baton," Friday evening from 9 to 11. Admission, boys, 55c, girls, 35c.
