ARMY OFFICER MARRIES

By MARY C. BRONNAN
OWEGO — Lieut. Edmund L. Russell, younger son of Mrs. F. Dean Russell of this village, and Miss Doris A. Toulson, daughter of Mrs. Minnie A. Toulson, of Knudloot, were married at the post chapel at Fort Jackson, Columbia, S. C., recently. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Monahan. The couple plan to reside for the present at Columbia.

Lieut. Russell is a graduate of St. Patrick's Parochial School, the Owego Free Academy and Colgate University. He also attended Albany Law School. He received his commission at Fort Benning, Ga., last year and is now a member of the 20th Infantry Division at Fort Jackson. Lieut. Russell's elder brother, Capt. Earl Russell, is a member of the Medical Corps and is stationed somewhere in Australia. Capt. Russell was a member of a doctor's unit from Lakeside Hospital, of Cleveland, O., which was among the first units to enlist after the outbreak of hostilities. He left this country early in January, 1942, with a company of doctors from Cleveland.

LIEUT. TOBIN HOWE

Lieut. John Tobin, who on Thursday of last week, received his commission after having completed several weeks' training at the Oficer's Training School at Camp Davis, S. C., is spending a short furlough at his home in this village. Lieut. Tobin enlisted in May, 1942, and spent several months at Fort Niagara. While there he was often a member of the guard group which accompanied the troops when they were transferred from Fort Niagara to various camps throughout the country. In this capacity Lieut. Tobin has traveled in almost every state in the Union. Before going to Fort Jackson, he was stationed for sometime at Camp Stewart, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Simile, of Lakawanna, Pa., who have three sons in the U. S. Army, have received word that the second son has arrived safely "overseas." Pvt. Charles Simile has been stationed for sometime in North Africa and this week they received a letter from another son, Pvt. John Simile, that he was "somewhere in England." Before being transferred overseas, the latter was located at a camp near Ogden, Utah. Their third son, Pvt. Michael Simile, is stationed at a camp near Oklahoma City, Okla.

EXPERIENCE NEEDED

Our Lady of Lourdes, DIALOGUE MASS SUCCESS

The first Dialogue Mass in Elmira was recited at 8 o'clock on Sunday, Oct. 10, by the members of the Altar Society and the Holy Name men of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish. So successful was the singing that the societies will continue the dialogue Mass every Sunday at the same Mass. Other parishioners will be invited to take part. The children of the parish will be taught in the practice, and may have a dialogue Mass of their own.

Rev. Joseph Chapin, C.M., of Whitehouse, L. I., will conduct the Forty Hours' Devotion at St. Casimir's Church, starting Sunday, Oct. 17, at the 10 o'clock Mass. Evening services will be held at 7:30.

Sullivan Buy Corning Store

The firm of J. P. & M. Sullivan has purchased the Porter Furniture House at 76-78 East Market St., Corning, and will be open for business there in the middle of November. The store has been closed for such alteration as is possible under material priorities.

Long established in Elmira as a distributor of quality furniture, this is the first time in its 45-year career that the Sullivan firm has operated outside of the city in addition to the store on 115-117 E. Water St. in Elmira, where Joseph P. and Mark Sullivan started in business in April, 1938. The present owners, Atty. John E. Sullivan, East Hill, of St. Mary's Parish, and Atty. Mortimer Sullivan, Buffalo, sons of Mark Sullivan, carry on in the same tradition, since the death of Joseph P. Sullivan in 1935.

The Porter Furniture House is also a long established business, having been operated by Mr. and Mrs. E. Pyng Porter for 23 years. As the J. P. & M. Sullivan Co., Corning, its policy will be the same as the Sullivan policy in Elmira. The same line of merchandise will be offered—medium and high grade, with a complete line of furniture, draperies, and rugs available in both stores.

Atty. John E. Sullivan is a member of St. Mary's Holy Name Society, and attended school in that parish. He also was graduated from the Academy and Cornell University, where he received his degree in law in 1926. In 1928 he opened his practice with Atty. Mortimer L. Sullivan at the offices on East Church St., where he has been ever since. He is chairman of the board and attorney for St. Joseph's Hospital, and a member of the Elks, the Country Club and the City Club.

Management of the new store will be in the hands of George A. Good, also of St. Mary's Parish, who is in charge of the Elmira Sullivan store. His father, Timothy F. Good, was manager there before him.

The newcomer meets with discipline that's swift and inexorable; the boys name the penalties and put them through, mostly deprivation of privileges, with the effectual proviso that he has to go along and see what he's missing. A boy is told that he can't swim, but he has to put on his trunks and watch everybody else do it. "Capital punishment" for misdeeds means he attending a movie—with his back to the screen.

SERVICE NEWS

Commissioned a second lieutenant teams organized into a baseball league show the popularity of America's favorite sport, and they play teams from outside schools with real competition. There's a band and a choir for the musically inclined.

A boy is trained in the faith he came in with. None are excluded, and 15 instructors teach the various religions in separate classes.

Perhaps the most potent influence a boy will find is his personal friendship with Father Flanagan, which everybody gets. There's an oft-replenished drawer full of candy in Father's desk where he confers with the boys. A young offender finds himself going with Father Flanagan to movies, on hikes, out for ice cream sodas, until he isn't so sure that nobody really cares what happens to him and what he does about it. Sometimes it may take as long as six months to wear down his defense shell, but it happens finally, and a good citizen is born.

There's no elaborate formula about Boys Town. Stated generally, it might be "Boys are better capable of governing themselves than of submitting to government of adults. Given responsibility, they will live up to it. Give them plenty of rope—but always be sure there's somebody on the end of it. . . . Give a boy scope for his abilities, outlets for his tremendous energies. . . . Give him the example you wish him to follow."

Does it work? Look at Boys Town, "one of the most interesting and successful social experiment stations in America."
