Philosophy for War,
 When you purchase furniture in war-time you want beauty, for morale; but even more important is quality. That's long-term economy, the only kind that counts. You know you'll find them both at . . .

SS. Peter and Paul's

HOLY NAME DRIVE OPENS

Efforts are being made to build up the parish Holy Name Society through a drive being conducted to increase the number of active members. The drive is being handled under the guidance of a committee selected from among those present at the last meeting. The slogan adopted for the drive is: "Every man of the parish a Holy Name man!" Information may be obtained from Father Tolster.
