Elmira Churches Set Jubilee Services

Climaxing the three days celebration of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Rochester Diocese, the Most Rev. Bishop James E. Kearney will offer the Pontifical Mass at 10 o'clock on Wednesday, Nov. 24, in SS. Peter and Paul's Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Lee, V.F., head of Elmira deanery, is in charge of arrangements. Pastors and assistant pastors from the local parishes will attend, and officers of the Mass will be chosen in the order of their vocation.

Students from Catholic High School will act as minor officers of the Mass. Other students from Catholic High will sing the Proper of the Mass. The Ordinary of the Mass will be sung by children of SS. Peter and Paul's School, from the Fifth to the Eighth grades.

They will sing as follows:

Processional—Sacerdos et Pontifex
Kyrie X
Gloria from Mass VIII
Credo III
Sanctus and Agnus Dei, Mass IV

Celebration of the jubilee is scheduled at individual churches as follows:

Our Lady of Lourdes

A Holy Hour on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:45 P. M. A high Mass of thanksgiving on Thursday at 9 o'clock.

St. Anthony's

Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament for each of the three days. Services each night at 7:30 P. M., in especial charge of the following societies: Monday, the Sacred Heart Ladies and Sacred Heart Men, with prayers, sermon in Italian, and benediction. Tuesday, the Holy Name Society, Daughters of Mary, Young Ladies' Sodality and Boys' Club, prayers, and sermon in English. Wednesday, children's night, with solemn procession of the Blessed Sacrament, and solemn benediction. School children and the Boy and Girl Scouts of the parish will march.

The school children will sing at the 8 o'clock Mass on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday a high Mass of Thanksgiving will be offered at 9 A. M.

St. Casimir's

Mass will be offered at 8 o'clock on the first three days. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will continue all day. At 3:30 P. M. the children of the school will recite the rosary and litany. Evening devotions in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, with benediction will start at 7:30 P. M.

The high Mass of Thanksgiving on Thursday at 9 A. M. will be followed by dedication of the families of the parish to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

St. Cecelia's

Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock each morning, attended by the school children. A Holy Hour will be held each evening from 7:30 to 8:30 P. M., with sermon and benediction. Monday evening, these services will be held especially for the Holy Name Society, on Tuesday, the Rosary and Altar Society, Wednesday for the Sacred Heart Society, together with the members of the Cecelian Girls' Club.

There will be a general Communion of parishioners at the 9 o'clock Mass on Thanksgiving Day.

St. Mary's

A triduum in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The sodality will be in charge of singing on Tuesday, and the school children will sing at another Holy Hour.

The school children will sing at the high Mass at 9 A. M. on Thanksgiving Day. Rev. Joseph Hogan will preach the sermon.

St. Patrick's

Evening services will be held at St. Patrick's on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. The 8 o'clock Mass will be offered on Thursday in Thanksgiving.

SS. Peter and Paul's Church

A missionary from the Society of the Divine Word will preach at evening services for three nights, starting Sunday, Nov. 16. Services will consist of Rosary, sermon and benediction of Blessed Sacrament.

Honor Firemen Ending 33 Years of Service

Martin B. Whitford, 452 Roe Ave., St. Patrick's Parish, was honored at a dinner on Thursday night after completing 33 years of service with the fire alarm department from which he retired on Saturday, Nov. 13. All but eight of those years, at Station 3, were spent at Station 1. Twenty city firemen attended the affair, held at Erie House. John Kelley was chairman and toastmaster. Mr. Whitford received a gift of money from his friends. A member of St. Patrick's Holy Name Society, Mr. Whitford is the father of three service men, and has a daughter employed with the FBI in Washington. Corp. Technician Robert B. Whitford is stationed at Camp Claiborne, La., with the Army Engineers. Seaman 2/c James F. Whitford is on active duty, having graduated from Navy Radio school, Springs, Pa. Capt. Thomas Whitford is with the military police at Fort Jay, Governor's Island, having finished recent training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Miss Marlyn Whitford will be home from Washington for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Dreams and Action

There can be no dreamer worthy of the name whose dreams do not incessantly converge to action. This is as true as that there can be no faith without works.

Father Sweeney's Sermons Listed For Jubilee Masses

CORNING—The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor of St. Mary's Church, announced Sunday that the Rev. Stephen Sweeney, a member of the Passionist Order, stationed at St. Ann's Monastery, Scranton, Pa., would speak Sunday at all Masses at St. Mary's to open the ceremonies in connection with the 75th anniversary of the Catholic Diocese of Rochester.

Father Sweeney will also give the sermons at the evening services scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. A solemn high Mass Thanksgiving morning at 9 o'clock will close the observance.

In connection with the diocesan celebration the Rev. Robert F. McNamara of Rochester, professor of history at St. Bernard's Seminary, will give radio talks on the history of the diocese over WHAM on three successive Sundays, beginning at 12:15 P. M., Nov. 21. Father McNamara is the son of Mrs. T. A. McNamara, 32 First St., and the late Dr. McNamara.
