Laus Deo, Alleluia!

1868—To The Diocese of Rochester—1943

HAIL, Breath of God indwelling! Spirit of Jubilee!
All hail this stately splendor of sacred liturgy!
Intone a grand Te Deum, Beauty's acclaim,
From us, your christened children in God's thrice Holy Name!

Hail to anointed hands that blessed! Hail to the love we've known
Hail to the zeal that in our souls the seed of Faith has sown!
Hail, Prefates' power that ne'er did quail before the tempest-shock!
Hail, Heart of God, that kept you firm on Truth's Eternal Rock!

Hark! Chiming bells down morning winds around Love's Mystery
Upon your Holy Altars . . . dear to childhood's memory,
Awakening Beauty once again in everlasting song
Of Youth that yearns for victory's palm in strife against the wrong!

Of pastoral care that watched and prayed beside the "narrow gate";
Of Sacramental strength bestowed through Priesthood's high estate,
Dear Rochester . . . O City of God! Well may your fruitful days
Receive the nod of fadeless fame and canticles of praise!

Ah, blessed Diamond Jubilee, enshrined among the years,
Long may your Chalice Radiance illumine our vale of tears!
Forever may those soaring voices of Alleluias ring
In hearts that pray . . . hearts that love God's Church whose praise we sing!

L'ENVOI

This Jubilee will journey on to join the storied past . . .
Until God's final judgment-hour in power shall come at last,
When clarion notes from Angel-thrones shall ring from land to land,
And legions of our "Deathless King" shall heed His last command.

O Shepherds of our Diocese, upon Truth's Living Rock
Still fold us in at eventide among your faithful flock,
Till resting safe in realms beyond, our purer gaze shall see
Forever kept by Heavenly Hosts your sitting Jubilee!

SISTER MARY CLAIRE, O.S.F.

Catholics Can Be Passive

"Let no one say, I am a Catholic, and I bring up my children Catholic, but I do not care about the Catholic press, its newspapers, books and pamphlets. I cannot be bothered with your guilds, your associations and other Catholic activities the pathetic language of bishops' pastorals and the long encyclicals of the Pope leave me cold. I say my prayers and I can well afford to keep out of the atmosphere of Catholic meetings."
"Such is the language used by those whom we call passive Catholics . . ."

"The times we live in call for united energy. The enemies of the Church are not apathetic and passive. They are well organized. They have 'cells,' each of which is a nucleus of active, determined members whose aim is to penetrate everywhere, to spread the poison of their ideals."
—The Late Cardinal Hinsley.

Nothing is simpler than death for the soul that loves Our Lord. It is like the turning of a leaf; on the one side time, on the other eternity.—Fr. Paul Ginhac, S.J.
