A two-day exhibit and series of meetings for the benefit of housewives and others who purchase or prepare food will be conducted by the Health Conservation Committee of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce on Dec. 1 and 2.

Home Aides For 'Years Of The Locusts' Play

Committee chairman for a recent performance of the "Years of the Locusts" an outstanding Catholic play to be given by Holy Family on Dec. 12, in the parish hall will announce this week.

Proceeds of the play will be used to help defray the winter heating costs at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 So. 11 Avenue.

Committee heads announced by the Catholic Worker Group, which conducts the hospitality house are as follows: Co-chairmen, Miss Virginia Croton and Miss Gertrude Fox; reception, Miss Wilma Mae Higgs; program, Miss Mary Agnes Dougherty; tickets, Miss Elizabeth Hasbrouck; ushers, Bernard Lanzer; publicity, Arthur P. Farren and John Deminger.

Gregorian chant for the production, which depicts events occurring in a Dominican cloister at the time of the Nazi invasion of Poland, was transcribed by the Rev.

Under the general title, "Fighting the War with Food," the program will demonstrate how the available foods can be used most efficiently.

Women of the Rochester Diocese are invited to attend one of the identical sessions of the food exhibit which will be held in the small assembly hall at the Chamber of Commerce according to the following schedule:

- Wednesday, Dec. 1, from 4:30 to 6:00 P. M.
- Thursday, Dec. 2, from 2:30 to 4:00 P. M.
- Thursday, Dec. 2, from 7:30 to 9:00 P. M.

Glee Club Formed By Mercy Alumnae

The newest group of singers to appear in the Diocese is the recently organized M. A. G. Club, Our Lady of Mercy High School Alumnae Association Glee Club. Membership in the Mercy Alumnae Glee Club is open to all graduates of the school.

The year's first meeting was enthusiastically attended on Thursday, Nov. 11 at Corpus Christi School Hall. Mrs. Mary Agnes Le Van, President, and Mrs. Betty Hagenback, Vice-President, promise a very successful year. Under the direction of Miss Madeline M. Servas, M. A. G. opportunities both religious and educational await the members. At the same time, the M. A. G. Club will be rendering service to the Diocese by singing at Church services and Church functions.

Miss Fern Smith has accepted the position of Librarian and Miss Edna Haasewander competently fills the office of Secretary-Treasurer.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 30 when rehearsals will start for the Christmas season functions.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like unto Thine!—100 days' Indulgence.

Blessed be God for all, and may His infinite Majesty make use of Me!—St. Teresa of Avila.
