Two U. S. Nuns Leave To Teach In Argentine

CHICAGO — Two nuns, members of the Sisters of St. Casimir, have left the motherhouse of the community here to join three other Sisters of the same community on the faculty of a new school just opened by them in Buenos Aires.

Both Sisters have perfected themselves in Spanish. They are Sister Aloisia and Sister Camillus.

Masses Offered For Two Missing In Action

Masses were offered this past week for two young men of St. Andrew's parish who have been reported missing in action.

Funeral Mass of Requiem was offered for Pvt. Angelo Taddeo on Saturday, Nov. 13 and for Pvt. Harold M. Ehney, technician, on Tuesday, Nov. 23. Prayers and sympathies of the parishioners were extended to the bereaved families.

The Boys of St. Andrew's Parish whose names appear on the Parish Honor Roll now total 875.

The Patronal Feast of St. Andrew's occurs on Tuesday, Nov. 30 and will be suitably observed with Solemn High Mass and Benediction followed by veneration of the True Relic of St. Andrew, Apostle, which this church is fortunate in having received through the late Rt. Rev. Andrew J. Meegan, former rector of St. Bernard's Seminary.

Announcement of the bands of marriage was made on Sunday between Arthur Kamp and Irene Ehrstein who were united in marriage at Norfolk, Virginia.

The wedding of Harold Kluber and Harriet Morse was solemnized on Saturday, Nov. 20 with Nuptial Mass. Miss Morse was a member of the Cathedral Parish, Savannah, Georgia and is a convert to the Church.

Honor 21 Salesmen For No-Accident 2 1-2 Year Record

With their safe driving campaign to aid the war effort by preventing injury, loss of life, and the conservation of tires and fuel reaching the 2½ year mark and totaling more than 1,900,000 miles of no-accident vehicle operation, 21 salesmen of the National Biscuit Company's Rochester Bread Bakery were honored by their Company and Rochester Civic and Safety Officials on Saturday, Nov. 20 at a dinner held at the Hotel Rochester.

Highlight of the event was a dual ceremony at which the salesmen were presented with the banner of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce Safety Council and the National Safety Council Award, which this National Biscuit Company group also won last year.

Following the dinner, the salesmen held their regular monthly safety meeting conducted and presided over by company vehicle operators. Chairman of Saturday's session was Vic Pastusiek and another salesman, Jack Baldwin was principal speaker.

Among the Rochester Municipal Leaders who attended the joint dinner and meeting were: Captain George V. Heisel, Rochester Police Traffic Department; Joseph Baglin, Rochester Police Department Accident Prevent Bureau; Harrison Young, Rochester City Traffic Engineer; Gerald Sullivan, Chairman of the Delivery Superintendent's Group of the Rochester Safety Council and Ray Seidel, Director of the Safety Department of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

Representing the National Biscuit Company were: J. V. Hastie, Insurance Department, New York City; J. W. Mertzluft, Manager, Syracuse NBC Bread Bakery; Harold Hagberg, Manager, Rochester Nabisco Agency and Lewis P. Bovini, Manager, Rochester NBC Bread Bakery.

Lay Leader Leaves Fund For Education of Priests

OTTAWA. The late Mrs. Annie Casey, well known Ottawa lay leader, has left most of her estate to pay for the education of student priests in Ontario. The estate is valued at $34,000 and after certain bequests have been made to two nieces and several charities, the residue, $26,000, is left to educate student priests.
