

Cardinal Plans Low-Cost Dwellings For Workers

BUENOS AIRES. His Excellence Santiago Cardinal Copello, Archbishop of Buenos Aires, has set aside a portion of the money given to him on his episcopal silver jubilee for the construction of low-cost dwellings for workmen and their families. A special committee, composed of Catholic Action leaders and members of the Federation of Catholic Labor Circles, will be in charge of the project.

Appeals for Nurses

Catholic nurses throughout the nation are responding to the urgent call for more nurses in the military and naval services. Stationed in Washington, as Executive Officer, Nursing Division, Surgeon General's Office, is Major Mary G. Phillips (above), of the Army Nurse Corps. Born in Eau Claire, Wis., she attends Sacred Heart Church, in the nation's capital. (N.C.W.C.)

Mobilize Spiritually To Fight Delinquency

BURLINGTON, Vt.—Contending that youthful delinquency is the nation's No. 1 social problem, the Rev. Thomas Connor, Director of U. S. Catholic Youth Organization for the Diocese of Burlington, in a radio address declared the fundamental cause of the evil is irreligion in the home, and the cure lies in a return to religion, through religious education, parental example and the restoration of Christian homelife.

The most vital part of the job in accomplishing these aims, Father Connor asserted, "must be done right here at home" by the individual, the family, the church, the school, the community and the nation. Mobilization toward the establishment of the post-war world order must begin now, he said, and the most important of all mobilizations is spiritual mobilization.

Nativity

Here, in this temple of the holy spirit,
Is one who is not counted in Your name—
Knowing, too well, she has not much endeavored
To follow Your example. And the same
Can be said about Your few commandments,
She has much admired, but not obeyed;
And yet she adds—and quick before the cockerow
Should burst upon a conscience too dismayed—
She is not here alone, estranged from You,
For, deep within her mind, Your lovely image
Lives, and to its purity is true.
To manage her affairs, Your holy spirit
Does not choose to exercise much force;
As yet, is not imperious. Young and mild,
It hardly more than indicates a course.
But there it is, and growing, like a child.
